The members who presented their certificates were then sworn or affirmed by Hon. Judge William N. Ashman.

Mr. Clay moved to proceed to the nomination and election of a President of Common Council for the ensuing term.

Which was agreed to.

The Clerk announced that nominations were in order.

Mr. Clay nominated Charles Lawrence.

Mr. Hoffman moved that Charles Lawrence be elected by acclamation.

Which was unanimously agreed to.

And Charles Lawrence was declared unanimously elected President of Common Council for the ensuing term.

Mr. Moran conducted the President to the Chair, when he administered the oath of office to him.

The President then made the following address :

GENTLEMEN OF COMMON COUNCIL:—I have to thank you for honoring me by again selecting me to perform the duties of President of this Chamber, and I can assure you that I appreciate this mark of your continued confidence. Having served in the position during the past two years, I have some idea of the responsibility attached, and will endeavor in the future as in the past to perform the duties with impartiality and to the best of my ability.

I hope to receive your kind forbearance and assistance in preserving order and enforcement of the rules.

As we are now about to enter upon another year, and one during which some of the most important legislation must be considered, I deem it well that we should take a view of the condition of city affairs and study the situation thoroughly, and I hope you will pardon me for referring to some of the important subjects that will require our attention.

Our financial condition, I am happy to say, is steadily improving. Year after year our funded debt is being paid off, and the appropriations for the sinking fund and interest account are reduced correspondingly. Our tax rate was reduced in 1883 to $1.85 (the lowest it had been since 1872), at which it still remains. The running expenses of the various departments have been paid, and large amounts have been appropriated for permanent improvements, and which I believe have been judiciously expended. The Trustees of the City Gas Works turned into the City Treasury, by order of the Court, a surplus amounting to over $2,000,000, and the money has been so appropriated by Councils that many needed improvements can be made during this year.

The water supply is a matter that requires our most careful consideration.

The engineers and surveyors employed under the direction of the Chief Engineer have made all the necessary surveys, and have collected the data to enable them to make a report to us at an early date. The money has been appropriated to prepare the plans, and to print the information, together with the diagrams, to enable us to form some idea of the necessities of the future and the best water attainable. The balance required to finish the intercepting sewer to Manayunk has been appropriated, and the work will probably be completed during this year. It is to be hoped that when it is completed the Schuylkill water will be much improved. Under any circumstances the want of additional subsiding basins or reservoirs must be admitted. If the proposed basin at Cambria street were erected and the East Park basins were completed, we could have a sufficient supply on hand to last at least three weeks, so that the pumps could be stopped when the river was muddy after storms, and the people could be supplied with clear water instead of the kind that is now so much complained of. In the northwestern parts of the city the water is pumped from the river and forced directly through the pipes to the houses without any chance of subsidence. This should be corrected at as early date as possible, and the erection of the Cambria street basin will do it. Much thought has been given to the whole subject by our scientific citizens, and while they may appear to differ in their views, I hope that the report of our Engineers and Surveyors may be so clear and convincing that we may be able to determine as to the best settlement of this very important subject.

The distribution has been much improved during the past two years, and much more will be accomplished during the present year, as Councils very wisely appropriated about a half million of dollars for that purpose. The annual report of the Chief Engineer of the Department should be read carefully by every member of Councils, as much valuable information can be derived from it.

The condition of our highways should be carefully considered. The paving, repairing, and cleaning of over 600 miles of streets, covering an area of 129 square miles, is not a small matter. It requires considerable attention and work. It is a serious question as to whether the present mode of making contracts is the best way to have this work done. In my address to this Chamber one year ago I said: "I am of opinion that it would be better if we could make our contracts for cleaning the streets in a different manner. If they were made for a period of years (say not less than five), the contractors could afford to procure the best machinery for the purpose, and have the necessary number of horses and carts to remove the dirt. Enough money is appropriated to do the work in a thorough manner; but much complaint is made as to the way in which it is done. It might be well to consider the advisability of the city purchasing the machinery, and to either make contracts to have the work done, and allow the use of the plant, or to employ men, under the directions of the Highway Department, to do it." I have seen no reason to change those views; but, on the contrary, I am more strengthened in them. It takes two or three months, at the beginning of the year, to have the contracts made, and to get the contractors started; and during that period the people have much grounds for complaint. This, I feel, could be avoided; and I hope the Highway Committee will give this matter their consideration.

The important subject of the drainage of our city has been carefully considered, and it has been much improved. Considerable money is being spent yearly in the building of sewers, and it is money well expended. Great care should be exercised in the construction of sewers and the connections thereto. Councils wisely ordered that inspectors should be appointed to see that the specifications were complied with by the contractors. A number of sewers will be built during the present year.

I am glad to say that about $500,000 were appropriated for the erection of new school-houses during the present year. It is hoped that accommodations will now be furnished for all the scholars. The importance of education cannot be over estimated, and every dollar spent for this purpose is repaid tenfold. Technical schools for the education of boys in the use of tools have attracted the attention of thinking men, and much good is expected from their successful management. Those at Girard College are considered models, and the others in our city will compare favorably with any in the country. In this connection it would probably be well to state that during the past year Councils passed a resolution requesting the Hon. Robert E. Pattison, Governor of the State of Pennsylvania, to apply to the Hon. Secretary of the United States Navy to furnish a school-ship, together with the necessary officers, to the Port of Philadelphia, for the purpose of educating boys to become seamen. Similar resolutions were also adopted by the Board of City Trusts, and all of the Commercial and maritime bodies of this city. The Governor made the application, and the Hon. Secretary of the Navy informed us that he considered it to be a matter of great importance, and he would do all that he could to comply with the request, and I feel assured that if we press the subject we will get the ship. I hope that the Committee on Commerce and Navigation will be instructed to act in the matter.

I regret to say that the burnt portion of the Almshouse has not as yet been rebuilt. As the money is appropriated the work will soon be done. Proposals were received for ground to erect a new Almshouse upon, but as they were not satisfactory to the Committee having the matter in charge, no action has been taken. We have about $125,000 available for that purpose, and as the building is greatly needed, I would suggest that steps be taken as soon as possible to secure the ground and proceed with the erection of the building. The proper care and maintenance of the poor and unfortunate should receive our first attention.

The plans, etc., for the erection of a new County prison have been completed, and as $200,000 have been appropriated for that purpose considerable headway can be made during this year. The crowded condition of the old prison makes this a work of necessity.

The management of the House of Correction is spoken of in the most favorable terms. The neat and cleanly appearance of the institution and the inmates, and the excellent discipline that is enforced causes favorable comment.

For the erection of a permanent steel or iron bridge across the Schuylkill river at Market street, $300,000 were appropriated from the surplus. A petition was presented signed by five thousand citizens asking for a similar bridge at Walnut street. I am satisfied that it would be wise to erect the other as soon as it is possible to do so. The section of our city west of the Schuylkill improves very rapidly and all facilities should be afforded for business and convenience. The additional taxes collected by reason of the increased value of property would soon repay the expense.

To the Police and Fire Departments is entrusted the safety of our lives and property. The officers and men employed in these departments have arduous and dangerous duties to perform and they deserve credit for the manner in which they have performed them. Our city is growing rapidly, and we should consider whether these departments should not be increased, to enable the people in the outlying and spreading sections to have the protection they are entitled to. The formation of a new police district in the southern section of the city and the extension of the police patrol system will be some relief, but it is a question whether that will be sufficient. I again renew my suggestion to apply to the Legislature to have an act passed to enable us to compensate the police and firemen in case of injury in the performance of their duties and to assist their families in case of death. I would recommend that the salaries of the firemen be fixed to correspond with those paid to the men on the police force. I think their services entitle them to the increase.

On the first Monday in April of next year, the new City Charter, known as the Bullitt Bill, will go into effect, and under the law it becomes the duty of Councils to pass the necessary ordinances, to inaugurate it, previous to January 1, 1887. This is no trifling task; it is one that will require your most careful consideration. The Mayor, who will be elected, and will take his seat on that day, will be the chief executive officer of the city, in fact as well as in the name. Departments that are now managed separately and solely by chiefs elected by Councils, will be consolidated and controlled by directors appointed by the Mayor. Boards and managers of institutions of Charities and Correction, Fire Department, etc., will be abolished, and directors appointed in their stead. It is expected that all of the employees will be appointed solely for their fitness to perform their duties, and retained during good behavior. In fact there will be an entire change in our form of government, and much of the success or failure of its administration will depend upon you. It will be your duty to endeavor to so frame your ordinances that the departments will work in harmony, and the hands of the Mayor and his directors and assistants strengthened. When we consider the great responsibility that must be assumed by the Director of Public Works, with the charge of the Departments of Water, Highways, Surveys, Gas, etc., with the thousands of employees under his control, it can readily be seen that he will need all the assistance that Councils can give him.

The same can be said of the other directors, and I feel safe in saying that the members of Council will give their earnest and careful thought to this very important duty, and endeavor to aid the administration in every manner.

Smith had no dishonest purpose or corrupt motive in his reckless and reprehensible use of the public money, has enabled Common Council to come to the conclusion (in view of the brief period that yet remains of his official term) that this resolution of censure and condemnation will serve, under all the circumstances of the case, as an adequate punishment for his bad administration of the high and responsible office committed by the people to his charge."

APPENDIX No. 1.

Philadelphia, April 5, 1886.

CHARLES LAWRENCE, ESQ.,

President of Common Council.

DEAR SIR:—An appropriation of $300,000 having been made by your Honorable bodies for the building of a bridge over the Schuylkill river at Market street, authority will be required to advertise the work and prepare detailed plans and specifications, also for the appointment of an assistant engineer, rodman, draftsman, and inspectors on the work, as it is proposed to use the piers existing below water, and as they will have to carry much greater weight than heretofore, the question of their sufficiency is one of such great responsibility, that I respectfully request authority to call on two expert engineers to fully consider the matter, and furnish an opinion thereon.

Respectfully submitted,

SAM'L L. SMEDLEY,

Chief Engineer and Surveyor.

APPENDIX No. 2.

Of instruction to the Chief Engineer and Surveyor to prepare plans and specifications for a bridge over the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, at Somerset street, Twenty-fifth Ward.

Resolved, by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, That the Chief Engineer and Surveyor be, and is, hereby instructed to prepare plans and specifications for a bridge over the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, at Somerset street, Twenty-fifth Ward.

APPENDIX No. 3.

416 WALNUT STREET.

Philadelphia, March 29, 1886.

DEAR SIR:—I think it is our duty to call attention to the demand of Board of State Charities, put forth in Mr. Garrett's letter of the 22d to Dr. Leidy. If he is right, and those gentlemen persist in the course threatened, the proposed building at Blockley can't be used for the Insane, when finished.

I am convinced Mr. Garrett is mistaken as to the powers of his Board, but as more than a year ago, I put before him and his committee all that I knew, and all the reasons that occur to me, and his letter shows that his views are not changed, there must certainly be two sides to the question.

Mr. Garrett claims the power to prevent the City rebuilding the Insane Hospital on the old site, because the place is an unfit one. He also claims the right to compel the City to reject any plan of rebuilding not approved by the Board of State Charities.

Much as I would like to have proper municipal institutions, they may be too dearly purchased at the price of another building commission. The question however, is not quite as bad as that; it is, however, a most serious one to those who know and realize the existing state of affairs.

There are a set of rules adopted by the Board, with the sanction of the Chief Justice and the Attorney General, which sustain this claim of Mr. Garrett; and the only question is, have they the authority of law? If they have, the new building cannot be used without the license of the Board of State Charities, and to use it as an insane hospital or asylum without such license, will be an indictable offence.

I have stated that my reasons for thinking these rules have not the force claimed for them, have been laid before the board, but this letter of Mr. Garrett shows this has been without effect, or forgotten.

The facts lie in a narrow compass. The Act of May 8, 1883, conferred on the Board of State Charities, with the sanction of the Chief Justice and Attorney General, the power to ordain rules for licensing all hospitals or houses in which the insane are placed for treatment or detention, unless excepted from the provisions of the Act. And by Section 11 it is made a misdemeanor to keep or maintain a house for the reception or custody of persons of unsound mind, without having obtained a license, if such license can be demanded.

It is therefore quite plain that the proposed building cannot be used as a hospital unless licensed, if the building is not excepted from the necessity of obtaining such a license.

Whether Mr. Garrett thinks it is plain that the building is not exempted, or whether he does not deem that important, I cannot tell. No notice has ever been taken of the claim to the exemption asserted in my letter.

There is then the grant of the power to exact licenses for all houses and places to be used for detaining insane persons. Then come the exceptions: (1) all gaols or prisons: (2) any particular hospital established by the State, or under any municipal authority, or any eleemosynary institution, may, with the consent of the Chief Justice and Attorney General, be excepted from the obligation to apply for or obtain a license; (3) the clause under which I claim exemption; and no such institution now existing shall be required to take out a license until required to do so by the Board, with the consent aforesaid: i. e., of the Chief Justice and Attorney General.

If this building is within the exception, the Board do not possess the power to require the license to be taken out, and, of course, Mr. Garrett's claim falls. What are the facts? Years ago, an insane hospital was built by the City at Blockley. It was enlarged many years ago, and in 1885 the centre building was burned, leaving the walls standing, worth, for rebuilding, from $20,000 to $30,000. The wings very slightly, if at all, damaged; the kitchen, which is a recent and expensive building, erected by a charity, is untouched. It is proposed to replace the centre building with some changes from the old plan, and Mr. Garrett's Board propose to forbid it. What do the words such institution mean in the excepting clause? All turns on this. Is it only the particular house or building used as an asylum, or do the words mean the whole establishment known as a hospital? I think it means the latter.

I think it was intended to exempt from this obligation or duty to take out a license for all existing hospitals owned or managed by State, City, or charitable institutions. The control of the management was given, but the necessity of applying for a license was withheld till the sanction of the Chief Justice and Attorney General to demand it, in the particular case, should be obtained.

I think that if a wing of the hospital at Danville, or at Harrisburg, or any one of the several buildings at Norristown is destroyed, a license is no more required for the restored, repaired, or replaced building than for any one not touched by the fire.

It must be remembered the act does not except absolutely. It only excepts till the Board and the Chief Justice and Attorney General unite in requiring a license to be taken out. Hence, whenever a necessity exists, the City can be compelled to apply for a license.

The serious point is: if Mr. Garrett is right, every existing institution is liable to be brought within the control of the Board by the accidental destruction of any essential part of their buildings, and may be compelled to select a new site as well as change the plan of its buildings.

The claim here is to exclude the right of the City to use the old site for the purpose: and the serious point is, that if the City is obstinate, and the Board persist, there can be no shelter found for our unfortunates. Mr. Garrett tells us all the hospitals are full. By the Statute no houses can be turned into asylums without the license of the Board, and to confine two insane people in any one house, without a license, is now a misdemeanor regardless of motives or necessity. Is not this serious? The City should know this at once. They have their own adviser, and they are the persons whose money is to be expended, and it is their hospital.

Having been active in inducing the City to go as far as they have, and being satisfied nothing more can be got, and that our choice is between such a building as we can get at Blockley, or none, I think it is our duty at once, and before any plan of building is finally adopted, and before any money has been expended, to notify the authorities and let the responsibility be where it ought.

Mr. Garrett complains that the plans have not been submitted to his committee, as if there had been a want of respect to the lawful authorities. My explanation that no plans have been decided on, and the rule of the Board requires that the first notice to them must be accompanied by plans drawn to a scale, has no more effect on him than my argument that we are not within his jurisdiction as to building or plan.

Yours, truly,

R. C. McMURTRIE.

MR. JOSEPH PAXSON,

Chairman of the Board of Guardians.

To the Honorable the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I return without my approval “An Ordinance to make an appropriation of surplus of Gas Loan No. 9 to the Departments of Water, Highways, etc.”

Having doubts as to the legality of the specific amount and object as set forth in Item 2, for improved pavements on streets occupied by Passenger Railways, seventy thousand dollars, I communicated with the City Solicitor, and am in receipt of his opinion which is submitted for your information and guidance.

Yours, truly,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,
Mayor.

Philadelphia, April 5, 1886.

HON. WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—I have just received your communication of the first instant, stating that an ordinance has been submitted to you for approval, which makes appropriations out of the surplus of Gas Loan No. 9, to various departments, one of the items of appropriation reading as follows:

“Item 2. For improved pavements on streets occupied by passenger railways, $70,000.”

You request my opinion whether “Councils have the legal right to make this specific appropriation,” and in view of the expiration of the present Councils, ask an immediate reply.

I advise you as follows: The ordinance of July 7, 1857 provides “That all railroad companies shall be at the entire cost and expense of maintaining, paving, repairing, and repaving that will be necessary upon any road, street, avenue, or alley occupied by them. * * * It shall be the duty of any company as aforesaid when requested so to do by the Chief Commissioner of Highways, to remove any obstruction, mend or repair their road, pave or repave the highways, as hereinbefore provided, and should they refuse or neglect to do so for ten days from the date of such notice, then and in such cases the Councils may forbid the running of any car or cars upon the said road until the same is fully complied with; and the city reserves the right in all cases to repair or repave such streets, and the expense thereof shall be a judgment upon the road, stock, and effects of such company, recoverable as judgments are now recoverable by the City of Philadelphia."

The obligation imposed by this and similar ordinances has been frequently interpreted by the Courts. Judge Thayer in the case of the Philadelphia & Gray's Ferry Passenger Railway Company against the City, 2 W. N. C., page 639, after a thorough review of the whole subject, says: "This Company is bound to keep in repair the entire roadway of the streets which they occupy, not only the part between the rails, but the whole roadway from curb to curb. By their charter they are expressly subject to the ordinance of 1857, and that ordinance expressly enacts that they shall be at the expense of all paving, repaving, and repairing that may be necessary upon the streets occupied by them, not upon the portion of the street occupied but upon the whole street.

Whatever streets they traverse they are bound to pave throughout their whole route, and not partially, but wholly and thoroughly. * * * It was not the intention of the city in passing this ordinance to divide the expense of paving the streets between the city and these corporations; on the contrary, the intent plainly manifest and clearly expressed was to place upon the companies the whole burden of keeping those streets through which they pass in repair, and it is a condition of their grant that they shall be obedient to this ordinance."

He further decides that the said company is bound by all the ordinances of the city relating to the paving and repaving of the streets.

In the case of the Thirteenth & Fifteenth Streets Passenger Railway Company against the City, 13 W. N. C., 487, Judge Elcock held that the following provision, "That the said company shall be compelled to keep in constant repair that portion of the street which they use and occupy," did not exempt the company from the obligation of paving and repairing the entire street to its full width.

The result of all the decisions upon the subject is, that railway companies are bound to pave, repave, and repair the entire streets occupied by them, unless they are exempted by some provision in their charter.

In my judgment, the kind of pavement which the railway companies are bound to maintain is not left to the discretion of the companies. The fact that railway companies have paved and repaired with cobble stones, will not relieve them from the obligation of paving with a different kind of pavement when Councils so direct.

Frequent and unnecessary changes from one kind of pavement to another kind, would of course impose upon the railway companies unreasonable burdens from which the Courts would relieve them. The streets occupied by them ought not to be made places for experimentation, unless the city pays the expenses.

There is, however, nothing in the law to prevent the adoption by the city of "improved pavements," and there is nothing to relieve the railway companies from the expenses of putting down such pavements, and keeping them in repair.

Your letter states that the appropriation is "for improved pavements" on streets occupied by passenger railways. Concerning the character of these "improved pavements," the particular streets where the pavements are to be used, and the names and charters of the passenger railway companies occupying those streets, I am not advised.

I therefore can only say, that if the appropriation is for the paving of streets occupied by passenger railways, such an appropriation is, in my judgment, illegal, unless the appropriation is to pay for the paving and repairing of such streets or portions thereof as the railway companies by their charters are not compelled to pave and repair.

I further advise you, that a general ordinance in the words "for improved pavements on streets occupied by passenger railways, $70,000," is, for the reasons above stated, not sufficiently specific, and makes an appropriation, which by the terms of the ordinance can be applied to the paving or repairing of any street. So long as the ordinance of July 7, 1857 remains unrepealed, Councils have no right by ordinance like the one now under consideration, to appropriate the money of the tax-payer for work which the Courts have decided must be done at the expense of the railway companies. I advise you that the ordinance is illegal.

CHAS. F. WARWICK.

City Solicitor.

APPENDIX No. 6.

Philadelphia, April 9, 1886.

To the Honorable the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have considered an ordinance intended to repeal a portion of an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to regulate the erection of oriel or bay windows," approved June 7, 1882.

The Ordinance approved June 7, 1882, was well and carefully considered, and the restrictions placed therein upon the erection of oriel or bay windows upon the first story of any building have sufficiently preserved the sidewalks from obstruction. The privilege of erecting above the first story oriel or bay windows "upon the fronts, sides, and rear ends of buildings, within lines drawn from the intersection of the party lines and building line at an angle of twenty (20) degrees with the latter, and to a distance of not more than four (4) feet beyond it," was in my judgment a just protection of the rights of citizens whose properties adjoined those accepting the privileges of the ordinance, and was likewise beneficial to the architectural beauty of the dwellings of our citizens, and has gone far to help and foster that display of elegance and skill which for the past few years has served to revolutionize the staid and monotonous rows of brick fronts, which in a degree had become possibly too typical of our city.

The present ordinance seeks to absolutely repeal this privilege upon the fronts of all buildings, regardless of their situation or the width of the highway upon which they are erected, whilst as a seeming contradiction of this action, the erection of these same windows is not prohibited upon side streets, which may be much narrower than the street upon which the same building fronts.

The protection of the side street is equally worthy of consideration to those residing thereon, and if the change is desired the ordinance shall be uniform in its bearings and conditions.

The consideration of all questions like those covered in this ordinance and the absolute and radical change which it compels, after so many of our citizens have secured the benefit granted by the ordinance now sought to be repealed, lead me to hope that your Honorable Bodies will hesitate in enacting a law, which, whilst a benefit to none will be alike detrimental to the beauty of our thoroughfares, and the evidences of that skill and taste which may be shown by our citizens in the erection of their dwellings.

These reasons, coupled with the earnest solicitations of many citizens and the protest of our leading architects, impel me to disapprove of the ordinance herewith returned, and withhold my signature.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor.

Governor.

NAVY DEPARTMENT.

Washington, D. C., May 12, 1886.

SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of November 17, 1885, containing a copy of the resolutions passed by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, on the 5th of that month, requesting that a suitable vessel, with Officers of the Navy, should be stationed at the Port of Philadelphia, as a nautical school for the instruction of youths in navigation, seamanship, marine engineering, etc.

I have delayed answering your request in the hope of being able to give you a reply to the effect that a vessel of war could be sent to Philadelphia for that purpose, but after careful examination of the vessels that would be suitable, I am forced to the conclusion that there is no vessel in the Navy which could be so assigned, except the old sailing sloop "Dale," which is now housed over and used as a Receiving Ship at the Washington Navy Yard. To put this ship in condition would require too large an expenditure from the limited appropriation for the repairs of wooden ships.

I beg to state, in this connection, that the Department is thoroughly interested in all such school ships, and that there would be no difficulty in detailing officers for the service, provided a ship could be obtained. It is suggested that a new vessel could be built or purchased and equipped for a moderate sum, which would be in every way more suitable for the purpose intended than one of our old sailing sloops, which would require a large annual expenditure to keep her in serviceable condition.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

(Signed)

W. C. WHITNEY,

Secretary of the Navy.

His Excellency,

The Governor of Pennsylvania,

Harrisburg, Pa.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys and Regulations, to whom was referred the accompanying “Ordinance to strike Thomas street, between Ruan and Church streets, Twenty-third Ward, from city plan,” beg leave to report that said Thomas street is not upon the city plan northeastwardly from Church street, nor is it opened southward from Church street to Ruan street; a number of large buildings are erected in the bed of said Thomas street, and as said street is situated within 197 feet 9 inches of Frankford avenue, your Committee are of opinion that said Thomas street is not a public necessity, and recommend the passage of the ordinance herewith returned.

AN ORDINANCE

To strike Thomas street, between Ruan and Church streets,
Twenty-third Ward, from city plan.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys and Regulations, to whom was referred the accompanying “Ordinance authorizing the erection of a bridge over the Norristown Railroad at Spencer street," beg leave to submit the report of the Chief Engineer and Surveyor, and recommend the passage of an ordinance, herewith reported, to build an iron bridge, the cost to the city not to exceed $2,300.

Geo. E. Ford (Ch'n), Chas. A. Kauffman, Jos. H. Brown, D. C. Cleaver, James Morrow, John H. Fow, R. E. Henderson, Theo. A. Atkins, John W. Peirson, Edward Matthews, A. Ellwood Jones, O. M. Willson, Frank Schanz, Henry Johnson.

Philadelphia, May 25, 1886.

GEO. E. FORD, Esq.,

Chairman Committee on Surveys.

DEAR SIR:—An Ordinance to authorize the erection of a wooden bridge over the Norristown Railroad at Spencer street, Twenty-eighth Ward, was referred to me for report.

I have made an examination of the site, and find that a wooden bridge formerly existed there, which went to decay many years ago.

Spencer street is paved from Ridge avenue to the railroad, and a large tract of land on the opposite of the railroad has recently been sold, and purchasers are anxious to build if they can secure a safe crossing of the railroad.

There is no economy in building a wooden bridge here. A light iron bridge, which would cost, with necessary masonry, from $2,000 to $2,500, would be better adapted to the place.

I am informed that there is an unexpended balance of $2,295.26 on Item 30 of the appropriation to the Highway Department, for 1886, for completing the building of South street bridge, which is available for such purposes as Councils may direct. Having consulted the Chief Commissioner of Highways, I recommend that $2,295.26 balance remaining in said Item 30 be appropriated for this purpose, and that the construction of an iron bridge with stone abutments be authorized.

Yours truly,

SAM'L L. SMEDLEY,

Chief Engineer and Surveyor.

AN ORDINANCE

Authorizing the construction of a bridge over the Norristown Railroad at Spencer street.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain. That the Chief Commissioner of Highways be, and he is, hereby authorized and directed to advertise and contract for an iron bridge with stone abutments crossing the Norristown Railroad at Spencer street, in the Twenty-eighth Ward, to be built in accordance with the plans and specifications of the Chief Engineer and Surveyor, payable out of the appropriation to the Department of Highways, for the year 1886, Item 30, cost not to exceed two thousand three hundred (2,300) dollars.

 APPENDIX No. 135.

Philadelphia, June 2, 1886.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys and Regulations, to whom was referred the accompanying petition to revise the lines of Tower street, between Cotton and Mechanic streets, in the Twenty-first Ward, beg leave to report that the present lines of Tower street, between the points named, not only make a bend in the street, but puts the city to considerable expense for damages, as there are four houses on the northeast side which extend so far out in the street, in its present location, as to make it necessary to tear them down when the street is ordered to be opened. If the line of the street is changed it will in no wise interfere with any improved property, and materially lessen the expense to the city to open said street. We are in favor of the revision, and present an ordinance herewith for your favorable consideration.

George E. Ford (Ch'n), Charles A. Kauffman, Joseph H. Brown, D. C. Cleaver, James Morrow, John H. Fow, R. E. Henderson, Theo. A. Atkins, John W. Peirson, Edward Matthews, A. Ellwood Jones, O. M. Willson, Frank Schanz, Henry Johnson.

AN ORDINANCE

To authorize the revision of lines of Tower street, in the Twenty-first Ward.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Department of Surveys be, and is, hereby authorized to revise the lines of Tower street, between Cotton street and Mechanic street, in the Twenty-first Ward: Provided, There is no cost to the city for land damages.

APPENDIX No. 136.

Philadelphia, June 3, 1886.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys and Regulations, to whom was referred the accompanying "Ordinance authorizing the construction of a sewer on Wakefield street and on Wisteria avenue," beg leave to report that the sewer is necessary, and they recommend its passage.

Geo. E. Ford (Ch'n), Chas. A. Kauffman, Jos. H. Brown, D. C. Cleaver, James Morrow, R. E. Henderson, Theo. A. Atkins, John W. Peirson, Edward Matthews, A. Ellwood Jones, O. M. Willson, Frank Schanz, Henry Johnson.

AN ORDINANCE

To authorize the construction of a sewer on Wakefield street, from Wister street to Wisteria avenue, and on Wisteria avenue to the Philadelphia and Germantown Railroad.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Department of Surveys be, and is, hereby authorized to construct the following sewer, viz.: On the line of Wakefield street, from Wister street to Wisteria avenue, and on Wisteria avenue to the Philadelphia and Germantown Railroad. Said sewer to be built in accordance with specifications prepared by the Chief Engineer and Surveyor.

SECT. 2. The Chief Engineer and Surveyor shall advertise according to law, announcing that bids will be received for the sewer above designated, and he shall allot it to the lowest bidders; and it shall be a condition of said contract that the contractor shall accept the sums assessed upon and charged to the properties lying on the lines of said sewer, in manner and form authorized by ordinance, entitled, "An Ordinance regulating the assessment upon property for the construction of branch culverts or drains," approved May 12th, 1866, and supplement thereto approved February 16, 1869; any excess over and above said assessment, in addition to that provided for by ordinance entitled "An Ordinance authorizing the Chief Engineer and Surveyor to draw warrants for street intersections, manholes, and legal deductions in the construction of branch sewers," approved April 3, 1868, to be charged to Item 12 to the amount of four thousand (4,000) dollars, and the balance to Item 13, out of surplus of Gas Loan No. 9, (for branch sewers) of annual appropriation made to the Department of Surveys.

APPENDIX No. 137.

Philadelphia, June 3, 1886.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We your Committee on Surveys and Regulations, to whom was referred the accompanying communication from the President of the Board of Guardians of the Poor, relative to drain from the Almshouse across the meadows to the Schuylkill river, beg leave to report that the filling up the meadows, which is a great public improvement, has progressed to the edge of a sluice which carries the sewage from the Almshouse.

A brick sewer with firm foundations across the newly made embankment on the old marsh, would have to be built on piles, and would therefore be very expensive, and we recommend that a wooden box drain be built as recommended by the Chief Engineer and Surveyor. It would last many years in the moist earth.

We find that a drain is also needed across the meadow about 300 feet south of the South Street Bridge, and recommend that it also be put in, as a continuation of a box drain 1 foot x 2 feet already laid under the West Chester & Philadelphia Railroad, a length of 360 feet.

Geo. E. Ford (Ch'n), Chas. A. Kauffman, Jos. H. Brown, D. C. Cleaver, James Morrow, John H. Fow, R. E. Henderson, Theo. A. Atkins, John W. Peirson, Edward Matthews, A. Ellwood Jones, O. M. Willson, Frank Schanz, Henry Johnson.

AN ORDINANCE

Authorizing the construction of two wooden box drains across the Almshouse Meadows.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Chief Engineer and Surveyor be, and he is, hereby authorized and directed to construct the following wooden box drains: One from the Almshouse across the meadows to the Schuylkill river, 740 feet long and 2 feet wide by 4 feet high, and one across the meadows about 300 feet south of the South Street Bridge, a continuation of a box drain 1 foot x 2 feet, already laid under West Chester and Philadelphia Railroad, a length of 360 feet: Provided, That the cost of the first, does not exceed eighteen hundred (1800) dollars, and that of the second drain four hundred (400) dollars, or that the total cost of the two drains does not exceed twenty-two hundred (2200) dollars, to be paid out of Item for branch sewers of the appropriation to the Department of Surveys for the year 1886.

CHARLES LAWRENCE, Esq.,

DEAR SIR :—I have received proposals for building sewer on Sixteenth street, from 188 feet north of Mifflin street to Wharton street, as follows :

James F. Kennedy,	$8.43	$8.30	$7.95	$6.90	$4.90—per linear foot
P. T. Dechan,	7.98	7.72	7.38	6.98	2.38	"	"
John S. Dutton,	6.75	6.00	5.50	5.00	3.25	"	"
T. P. Smart,	9.00	8.00	7.00	5.00	2.19	"	"

Mr. John S. Dutton being the lowest bidder, I have awarded the contract to him at the prices named. The limit of the contract will be $16,000 payable out of Item 33 of appropriation to the Department of Surveys as authorized by ordinance June 7, 1886.

APPENDIX No. 145.

Philadelphia, June 10, 1886.

CHARLES LAWRENCE, Esq.,

President of Common Council.

DEAR SIR :—As directed by resolution of Councils, I have made an examination and complete plans of the old aqueduct on Chestnut street from Broad street to Seventeenth street, with a view of adapting it to drainage purposes, but am led to the conclusion that it would be better to abandon such use of it, and put in vitrified drain pipes on both sides of the street for house drainage, and have the aqueduct thoroughly cleaned out, and all filth removed from the interior.

When the aqueduct was abandoned which leads from the Water Works at Chestnut street and the Schuylkill river to Penn square, the bricks were all removed except that portion on Chestnut street from Seventeenth street to Broad street and on Broad street from Chestnut street to Penn square. It is six feet inside diameter, and nearly level. A new bottom has been inserted in some places with various depth of material, so as to give flow to sewage, and a number of house drains are connected therewith. In consequence of the flatness of the bottom and longitudinal grades, there is a general deposit, varying from eight to twenty inches in depth, which is a great nuisance. The aqueduct is connected with lateral sewers on Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth streets.

There are two gas pipes two feet apart, one of about ten inches in diameter and the other three inches in diameter, directly over the aqueduct, and the street is well filled with gas and water mains, so that the removal of the aqueduct or the construction of new sewers will be attended with expense and inconvenience to the public.

If the aqueduct had never been removed west of Seventeenth street it would have been available for underground electrical wires, and it would now be worth considering whether that which remains between the City Hall and Seventeenth street might not be used for that purpose.

The north face of the brick work lies within two feet of the curb line, and I fear that there are some private vaults under the sidewalks, the masonry of which may be in the way of laying the drain pipes, but as the top of the aqueduct is too high to allow house connections to be carried across to the middle of the street, it will be advisable to lay a drain pipe near the curb line on each side of the street, connecting with sewers at Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets.

The estimated cost of this work is $4,600. If assessment bills can be collected between Fifteenth and Seventeenth streets (which is doubtful) this amount may be reduced $2,100.

Respectfully submitted,

SAML L. SMEDLEY,

Chief Engineer.

GENTLEMEN:—Resolved, That a copy of the opinion of the City Solicitor, relating to the Act of Assembly approved the thirtieth day of June, 1885, authorizing Boards of Health of cities of the first class to adopt and promulgate rules and regulations governing house drainage, the ventilation thereof, and the construction of cesspools be, and is, hereby respectfully submitted to the City Councils for their action.

Philadelphia, April 8, 1886.

WILLIAM P. TROTH, Esq.,

Chief Clerk of the Board of Health.

DEAR SIR:—I am in receipt, under date of March 2, 1886, of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the City Solicitor be requested to inform this Board, whether the Act of June 30, 1885, is mandatory upon City Councils to appropriate money to the Board to carry out the provisions of said Act. and whether the Board has authority to appoint the necessary officers without a previous appropriation by City Councils.

In reply thereto I advise your Board as follows: under the first section of the Act of June 30, 1885, it is the duty of the Board of Health:

1. To adopt and promulgate suitable rules and regulations for the construction of house drainage and cesspools.

2. To provide for the registration of Master plumbers, and persons engaged in the plumbing business in this city.

Under the second section of said act, it is the duty of the Board:

1. To establish a system of inspection and supervision over all house drainage and cesspools, and ventilation of the same.

2. To appoint such inspectors as in the judgment of the Board may be necessary.

After the inspectors have been appointed, it is the duty of Councils to fix their salaries. The salaries being determined, it becomes the duty of Councils to appropriate the money necessary to pay the inspectors, and to give this Act its full effect for the protection of the health of the citizens.

The appropriation of the money necessary to meet the salaries of the officers is a matter not left to the discretion of Councils, but it is an imperative duty commanded to be performed by the Legislature.

In my opinion, the Act to which you refer is mandatory upon Councils in so far as an appropriation is necessary. Any different interpretation would violate the ordinary rules for the interpretation of Statutes, and render the Act a nullity.

Yours, respectfully,

CHAS. F. WARWICK,

City Solicitor.

P. A. B. WIDENER, Esq.,

President Market Street Railway and Philadelphia Traction Company.

DEAR SIR:—The plan for the new iron bridge across the Schuylkill river, at Market street, which will be advertised to-morrow, is provided with openings for the cable conduit.

This will add to the cost of the bridge, and the ordinance approved May 26, 1886, authorizing me to advertise for the work, provides, Section 3, "That the Company using the cable road shall pay to the City of Philadelphia the extra cost of constructing the slot for the cable, according to a correct valuation thereof by the Chief Engineer and Surveyor."

I write to let you know the action taken by the Councils, and of the progress of the work, desiring to be informed by you as to your willingness to comply with the provision of the ordinance at the proper time.

Yours truly,

Philadelphia, June 17, 1886.

CHAS. LAWRENCE, Esq.,

President of Common Council.

DEAR SIR:—As directed by ordinance approved May 26, 1886, I have advertised for proposals for the construction of an iron bridge over the River Schuylkill, at Market street, including additional masonry on old abutments and piers above low water line.

Six proposals were received and opened in the presence of the Committee on Surveys, on the 15th inst., as follows:

R. A. Malone & Sons.....	$271,000 00
New Jersey Steel and Iron Company.....	277,638 50
The Phoenix Bridge Company.....	294,205 00
Edgemoor Iron Company.....	294,449 00
Keystone Bridge Company.....	308,000 00
The Jones and Benner Company.....	311,000 00

R. A. Malone & Sons are the lowest bidders. They are contractors of many years experience in heavy railroad and other work, and on the assurance that their contracts for the iron work have been made with Messrs. Coffrode and Saylor, who have large resources at their bridge works, at Pottstown, I have awarded the contract to R. A. Malone & Sons for the sum of $271,000, to be completed in twelve months.

This sum does not include any work on the western pier below low water-line: in case it is determined that such may be needed after a satisfactory examination has been made into their condition. I send herewith copies of proposals and specifications.

I have also to report to you that I have communicated with the Philadelphia Traction Company relative to their paying the extra cost of laying the railroad and conduit across the bridge, and I have received their reply, agreeing to comply with the terms of the ordinance in this respect.

Philadelphia, June 22, 1886.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN :—We, your Committee on Surveys and Regulations, to whom was referred the accompanying ordinance to revise the lines of Filbert street, from Juniper to Fifteenth streets, beg leave to report that the houses between Broad and Merrick streets have been built to recede about four feet, so that the side-walk is now 17 feet 9 inches wide. These houses have been set back a number of years, and if any one of them is rebuilt to the legal line of Filbert street, it will injure the adjoining owners and be a great public inconvenience, which will be more apparent now that the City Hall and Pennsylvania Railroad Depot are erected there. Between Broad street and Juniper, the Masonic Temple is also set back from the street line and will not be disturbed.

We respectfully ask the approval of the ordinance herewith.

Geo. E. Ford (Ch'n), Wm. Thornton, John H. Fow, G. A. Weidner, Chas. A. Kauffman, Theo. A. Atkins, Jos. H. Brown, John W. Peirson, Wm. M. Smith, James. Morrow, D. C. Cleaver, Wm. Moffet, Matt. Clifton, O. M. Willson.

APPENDIX No. 229.

DEPARTMENT OF CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia, September 1, 1886.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—In accordance with the provisions of the Act of Assembly, approved June 11, 1879, I herewith furnish a detailed statement of the estimated receipts, expenditures, and liabilities of every kind for the next fiscal year, from January 1, 1887, and for the months of the current year from August 1, 1886, and I have added thereto the usual calculations for the tax rate, made in conformity with the directions of the first section of that Act.

The total estimated expenses of the various Departments of the City for the year 1887, as submitted to me, amount to $13,072,586.94, exclusive of "the lawful obligations due by the City" during that year, which must be provided for, amounting to $4,745,337.97.

This sum includes the several amounts required for the payment of interest and State tax upon the loans of the City during 1887; the amount required to pay the principal of the four per cent. loans maturing during that year; the amount required by the Sinking Fund Commissioners; the estimated amount required for mandamuses; and the amount due for land damages at the Cambria Reservoir.

A detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures for the seven months ending August 1, 1886, and of the estimated receipts and expenses for the five months ending December 31, 1886, show an estimated surplus of $542,032.08. This may, however, be reduced by an increase of the amount required for mandamuses during the remaining five months of this year; a reduction of the amount of balances merging at the close of the year; and by a falling off of the estimated receipts.

The valuation of taxable property for 1887 furnished by the Board of Revision of Taxes, amounts to $628,679,312, which is $17,369,697 in excess of the valuation for 1886.

If the tax rate for 1887 be fixed at $1.85 it will be necessary for you to reduce the estimates of the Departments

$3,171,915.04, but a tax at that rate will enable you to appropriate to the departments $1,132,932.64 more than you were able to realize from the same rate this year, excluding, of course, the Gas Loan surplus.

A tax rate of $2.41 upon the valuation for the year will produce $13,096,343.70, sufficient to meet all the demands of the several departments.

A tax rate of $2.00 upon the same valuation will give $2,414,910.96 less than the departments ask for, or $493,125.74 less than they received this year, including the appropriations from Gas Loan No. 9 Surplus.

A tax rate of $1.95 upon the same valuation will give $2,610,117.53 less than the departments ask for, or $688,332.31 less than they received this year, including the appropriation from the Gas Loan No. 9 Surplus.

A tax rate of $1.90 upon the same valuation will give $2,884,716.42 less than the departments ask for, or $962,931.20 less than they received this year, including the appropriation from the Gas Loan No. 9 Surplus.

A tax rate of $1.85 upon the same valuation will give $3,171,915.04 less than the departments ask for, or $1,250,129.82 less than they received this year, including the appropriation from the Gas Loan No. 9 Surplus.

A tax rate of $1.80 upon the same valuation will give $3,453,795.36 less than the departments ask for, or $1,532,010.14 less than they received this year, including the appropriation from the Gas Loan No. 9 Surplus.

In view of the fact that $1,771,408.04 (being the surplus arising from the Gas Loan No. 9), has during the present year been placed at the disposal of Councils for permanent improvements, and as the valuation of taxable property for 1887 is $17,369,697 in excess of the valuation of 1886, it appears that the expenses of the departments of the city for the year, (based upon the expenses of the present year), and the outstanding liabilities will be fully met by a tax rate of $1.85.

It is a satisfaction to the tax payers and the holders of the city's obligations to learn of the gradual but considerable reduction of the funded debt of the city with a corresponding decrease in the charges for interest.

There has been redeemed during the first seven months of this year, loans amounting to $2,008,300, and there will be redeemed on January 1, 1887, loans amounting to $1,054,825, which will reduce the amount to be appropriated for interest in 1887, in round numbers, $135,000.

This statement is based upon the needs of the various departments as they now exist, and has not been prepared with any view of the changes incident to the inauguration of the revised City Charter, neither has it in any way contemplated the change a reorganization in the Gas Department would effect.

These matters are now engaging the attention of Councils, and I have in my statement to you of September 1, 1885, and in my Annual Report for the year 1885, given my views respecting the disposition of the Gas Department.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

ROBERT P. DECHERT,

City Controller.

APPENDIX No. 230.

Philadelphia, September 1, 1886.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The undersigned offer to take a lease of the City's Gas Works for twenty-five years, and agree to pay therefor the sum of $25,000,000, in yearly payments of $1,000,000 each in advance; to give the city in addition, a cash bonus of $3,000,000, to be expended by us within five years in the improvement of the Works, mains, etc.; and to expend such further sums thereon from time to time, as may be necessary to maintain said Works in a thoroughly efficient condition at all times, until the end of the lease; to charge private consumers not more than $1.50 and the city not more than 75 cents per thousand cubic feet for gas of at least ten per cent. greater illuminating power than that now furnished; and to maintain and light all street lamps now or hereafter erected by the city, at $16 per annum each.

The terms of our proposition are more fully and explicitly stated in the accompanying draft of an ordinance which we respectfully submit for your consideration.

We have fixed $1.50 per thousand cubic feet as the maximum price for a greatly improved quality of gas, first because that is the lowest price for which gas is sold in the United States at the present time by responsible companies, and, secondly, because with the uncertainty as to the price of labor and materials in the future, it would be manifestly unbusiness-like to bind ourselves to charge any lower rate, when by doing so, we might possibly be compelled to conduct the Works at a loss. But we contemplate furnishing gas at all times as cheaply as it can be furnished at a fair profit. It must be obvious that the improvements which are being made in the different processes of manufacturing gas and the certainty of a sharp competition in the near future between gas and electricity as illuminants, will necessarily compel producers of gas to lower their rates as rapidly as is consistent with judicious business management.

Very respectfully yours,

HENRY LEWIS,
WHARTON BARKER,
THOMAS DOLAN,
GEORGE PHILLER.

AN ORDINANCE

Providing for leasing the Philadelphia Gas Works to Henry Lewis, Wharton Barker, Thomas Dolan, and George Philler, and their assigns, for a period of twenty-five years, upon certain terms and conditions, and directing the Mayor to execute a lease therefor.

WHEREAS, Henry Lewis, Wharton Barker, Thomas Dolan, and George Philler, have made a proposition to take a lease of the Philadelphia Gas Works for twenty-five years, and to pay therefor an annual rental of one million (1,000,000) dollars in advance, and to expend upon the improvement of the same the sum of three million (3,000,000) dollars, and at their own expense to maintain them throughout the term in a thoroughly efficient condition, and at the end thereof to restore them in such condition to the city, therefore

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Mayor of the said city be, and he is, hereby authorized and directed to execute and deliver to the said Henry Lewis, Wharton Barker, Thomas Dolan, and George Philler, a lease (which shall be prepared by the City Solicitor) leasing unto them and their assigns for the term of twenty-five years from the date thereof, all and singular the Gas Works of the said city, consisting of the lands, buildings, tenements, machinery, plant, tools, mains, services, meters, and all the assets and estate, real, personal, and mixed now vested in, or possessed, or used by the said city or the Trustees of the said Works for the manufacture of gas (excepting and reserving all cash on hand, bonds, stocks and accounts due the said Trust for gas, coke, tar lime or other material on the day of the execution and delivery of the said lease) upon the following terms and conditions:

A. The Lessees or their assigns shall, at the time of the execution and delivery of said lease, pay to the City Treasurer the sum of one million (1,000,000) dollars as the first annual payment of rent in advance, and at the commencement of each and every year thereafter during the continuance of this lease shall yield and pay to the City Treasurer a like sum of one million (1,000,000) dollars rental in advance. In addition, the said Lessees or their assigns shall, within five years from the commencement of said lease, expend the sum of three million (3,000,000) dollars in the improvement of the works, machinery, tanks, mains, service pipes and meters leased to them, and such additional sums from time to time thereafter as may be necessary to maintain said works in a thoroughly efficient condition throughout said term, in which said condition they shall be restored to the City of Philadelphia at the end of said term.

B. The Lessees or their assigns shall furnish at all times, to private consumers, gas of an illuminating power at least ten per cent. greater than that now furnished, and at a price never to exceed one (1) dollar and a half ($\frac{1}{2}$) per thousand cubic feet; and shall furnish gas for all the city's public buildings and school houses, and for all armories now lighted by the city at seventy-five (75) cents per thousand cubic feet, and shall light and keep in good order and repair all street lamps, now erected or hereafter to be erected by the city, at the price of sixteen (16) dollars each per annum, the burners in said lamps to equal five (5) cubic feet of gas per hour.

C. Whenever, by reason of the growth of the city, new mains in addition to those now existing and included in said lease shall become necessary for the proper accommodation of the public, the Lessees or their assigns shall lay the same and pay the cost thereof: Provided, however, That at the expiration of said lease, the city upon taking possession of such new mains together with service pipes and meters connected therewith, shall pay to the Lessees or their assigns so much of the cost thereof as shall represent the then actual cash value thereof to the city, which value shall be determined by three disinterested arbitrators, one to be chosen by each party, and the two thus chosen to select the third, and their decision shall be final and conclusive upon both parties; but the Lessees or their assigns shall have no claim whatever against the city for repayment of any sums expended by them in the improvement or repairs of the works, mains, service pipes and meters now existing and included in said lease.

D. Should the future growth of the city at any time during the continuance of said lease be such as to render the entire capacity of the works now existing and leased inadequate to manufacture sufficient gas to meet the increased demands of the public, and thereby necessitate the permanent extension of the works, by the purchase of additional ground or the erection of new buildings, retorts, tanks, holders, machinery, and appliances for manufacturing gas, in addition to those now existing and leased, then the city and the Lessees or their assigns shall mutually agree upon a mode of making such permanent extensions and raising the money necessary therefor.

E. The Lessees or their assigns shall take from the city and pay for all coal, coke, lime, gas and materials, for repairs on hand at the time of the execution of said lease at their value, which value shall be determined by three disinterested appraisers to be selected in the manner hereinbefore provided for selecting arbitrators; and shall assume all outstanding contracts binding upon the city for coal and other materials to be furnished to, and repairs to be done upon said Gas Works. But all cash on hand, stocks, securities and the amounts due the Trustees for gas, coke, tar, lime or other materials shall be retained by the city and shall not be included in said lease.

F. The city shall have the right at all times, by its proper officer appointed for that purpose, to inspect the works and examine the quality of gas furnished; and shall also have the right to elect one-fourth of the whole number of Directors of any corporation that may be formed to manage and conduct said works under this lease, which Directors shall be chosen by Councils at a time and in a manner to be provided for hereafter.

G. No street or highway shall be opened by the Lessees for the purpose of laying pipe or gas mains without a permit from the properly authorized officers of the city, and additional mains which may become necessary shall be laid in accordance with the laws and ordinances of the city.

H. The Lessees or their assigns shall furnish gas to any citizen whose premises front upon streets upon which gas-pipes are laid under and subject to the same rules and regulations which are now in force respecting service-pipes, connections, stop-cocks, meters, gas bills, and the introduction and supply of gas.

I. The city hereby agrees not to grant any other person or corporation the right to lay gas pipes in any of the streets during the continuance of this lease, and not to pass any ordinance tending to impair the value of the works to the city or its lessees or their assigns; and the lessees or their assigns are prohibited from disposing of their rights and privileges acquired under the lease so as to deprive the city of her just and equitable rights in the premises.

J. The lease shall be upon the express condition that the lessees, or their assigns, shall at all times, without interruption or delay, furnish to the City of Philadelphia for all its lamps, departments, and other public purposes all necessary lights, notwithstanding any difference or dispute between the lessees or their assigns and the city, so that the public shall not at any time be deprived of light; and the neglect, evasion, or violation of this provision, or of any of the conditions of the lease, or any failure to pay the rent within thirty (30) days after the same shall be due shall, at the option of the city, work a forfeiture of the lease; and any matter of dispute whatever, which may at any time arise in any way between the parties under the lease, shall be determined by three disinterested arbitrators, to be chosen in the manner hereinbefore provided; and if either party shall refuse to elect an arbitrator, after written notice so to do, then the arbitrator to represent such party shall be appointed by the Court of Common Pleas upon petition, and the decision of said arbitrators shall be final and conclusive upon both parties.

SECT. 2. Out of the rents received from time to time from said lessees for said gas works, the City Treasurer shall, in accordance with the provisions of the third section of an ordinance approved the 26th day of December, A. D. 1868, entitled "An Ordinance to create a loan for the further extension of the Philadelphia Gas Works," and of the third section of an ordinance approved the 18th day of May, A. D. 1870, and entitled "An ordinance to create a loan for the further extension of the Philadelphia Gas Works," and of the third section of an ordinance approved the 26th day of October, A. D. 1871, and entitled "An Ordinance to create a loan for the further extension of the Philadelphia Gas Works," and of the third section of an ordinance approved the 16th day of November, A. D. 1874, and entitled "An Ordinance to create a loan for the further extension of the Philadelphia Gas Works," retain and set apart for the purposes therein specified the sum or sums of money which are therein required to be retained and set apart from the receipts from the sale of gas for said purposes until the loans authorized by said ordinances shall have been paid.

APPENDIX No. 231.

DEPARTMENT OF GUARDIANS OF THE POOR.

Philadelphia, August 28, 1886.

CHARLES LAWRENCE, ESQ.,

President of Common Council.

DEAR SIR:—I enclose herewith a copy of correspondence between the Hospital Committee of this department and the managers of the University Hospital, which was considered by the Board of Guardians at a meeting held July 26th, and ordered “that the correspondence upon the subject of free beds for the uses of the city’s poor be communicated to Select and Common Councils, and that these bodies be respectfully asked to consider the advisability of conferring the power of naming the occupants of such beds in any hospital to the Board of Guardians of the Poor.”

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT C. FLOYD,

Secretary.

PHILADELPHIA HOSPITAL.

Philadelphia, July 9, 1886.

MR. ROBERT C. FLOYD,

Secretary Board of Guardians.

DEAR SIR:—At a meeting of the Hospital Committee, held this day, the following resolution was adopted:

“Resolved, A question having arisen as to the right of the Guardians of the Poor of the city, to enforce the conditions in the ordinance of May 18, 1872, that there shall be maintained fifty free beds, in the hospital to be erected by the University, for the use of the poor of the city requiring hospital treatment, the Physician in Chief of the Guardians of the Poor, is directed to ask, from the chief officer of the University Hospital, a statement as to the mode in which that condition is now being performed and whether there are so many free beds maintained therein? whether they are all occupied, and if not, what vacancies there are? by whom are the occupants selected, and on what grounds, and this with a view of reporting to the Board, and probably laying a case before the City Solicitor."

The above resolution was sent to Richard D. Wood, President Board of Managers, University Hospital, and the following reply was received:

400 CHESTNUT STREET.

Philadelphia, July 21, 1886.

T. W. McLAUGHLIN, Esq., M. D.,

Physician in Chief Philadelphia Hospital.

DEAR FRIEND:—In reply to thy inquiry on behalf of the Hospital Committee of the Board of Guardians of the Poor as to the number of free beds maintained in the hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, for the use of the poor of the City of Philadelphia requiring hospital treatment. I have to say, during the first six months of this year the average number of such beds so occupied has been fifty-three, as appears by the records of the hospital, and that there is no doubt this number does not represent the full total of the poor of the city cared for by the hospital. A good many cases are taken in at its doors who do not give their residences, which are registered therefore as "unknown," and do not appear on the records as coming from the city, although no doubt the larger proportion of them do.

Free patients are admitted by the professors of the medical staff (a list of whom is upon page 5 of the report of last year, which I send a copy of,) who may send to their own department of the hospital any patient they see fit, with a written order to the superintendent for admission, provided that there is a vacant bed in that department.

The number of free beds maintained for the poor of the city in years prior to this is believed to be virtually the same as in this.

Thy friend,

(SIGNED)

RICHARD C. WOOD,

President Board Managers University Hospital.

All of the above was submitted to the Board of Guardians, at their meeting in July.

Very truly your obedient servant.

T. W. McLAUGHLIN,
Physician in Chief Philadelphia Hospital.

GEORGE STURGES, Recording Clerk.

APPENDIX No. 233.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, September 2, 1886.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I am necessitated to return to your Honorable bodies without my approval an ordinance which reads “An Ordinance to approve the contract and surety of R. A. Malone & Sons, for the construction of an iron bridge over the River Schuylkill at Market street.”

The ordinance approved May 26, 1886, directing the Chief Engineer and Surveyor to advertise for and enter into a contract for the construction of a whole or part of a deck iron bridge over the Schuylkill river at Market street, provided (section 6 inter alia) “In case after the removal of old masonry any portions of the foundation are found defective or insufficient, the Chief Engineer and Surveyor is authorized to enter into agreement or contract for changes in the plans and specification as the necessity of the case may demand, subject to the approval of the Committee on Survey, the expenses for this section payable out of the aggregate, to be limited to thirty thousand (30,000) dollars.”

In the specification and contract which were drawn up and submitted for my signature previous to the expiration of the limit of time allowed by law for my consideration of the same, there appears the following.

“Item 9. Should the Chief Engineer and Surveyor or the City consider it necessary to change the design or specifications, or both, of any part of the work during its progress, the contractor shall conform to such change, and the value of the changes as made shall be estimated by the Chief Engineer and Surveyor and accepted by the contractor as final, and no consequential loss of profit on work not executed shall be estimated to the contractor.”

“The contractor shall apply in writing for an estimate of the value of the change not later than the time at which said change is being made, and before the next succeeding estimate and payment: any changes to be made at an increased cost of the works shall, at the option of the Chief Engineer and Surveyor, be executed under a separate contract therefor."

The general ordinance of 1877, page 83, West's Digest, reads as follows: "All contracts requiring the signature of the Mayor that may be entered into in behalf of any department of the city of Philadelphia for materials to be furnished or for work to be done, shall not be altered in any material matter, either in quantity of materials to be furnished, work to be done or prices to be paid for said work and material, without the Chief of the Department for which said contract has been entered into shall have previously laid before Councils a plan and estimated cost of the proposed changes, and obtain the consent of Councils to the proposed changes and alterations."

You will note the material difference between the limit of change permitted to the Chief Engineer and Surveyor in the ordinance of May 26, 1886, referring only to hidden defects in the old masonry or foundation, and then limited to the sum of thirty thousand ($30,000) dollars, and the specification under which the present contract is sought to be approved, which permit changes in the design or specifications, or both, of any part of the work, without limit in amount and without the approval and consent of Councils to the proposed changes and alterations.

These facts must certainly have escaped your observation, and are certainly just cause for Executive disapproval. The City has heretofore, it would appear, adhered to the wise provisions of the ordinance of 1877, and your consideration is respectfully requested to the necessity of such legislation as will alike protect the City and the contractor.

Regretting that it has been necessary to delay for one day the commencement of a structure which is greatly needed to afford safe and convenient access between the citizens east and west of the Schuylkill river, I am constrained to seek your removal of the objections referred to, that the work may be prosecuted with credit to the City and satisfaction to those for whom we are called to act.

Very respectfully,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor of Philadelphia.

APPENDIX No. 234.

Philadelphia, September 2, 1886.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—By recent legislation the Armory Building, erected by the Third Regiment Infantry, N. G. P., at Twelfth and Reed streets, has been purchased for the use of the Water and Police Departments, jointly.

The Patrol Service has been constructed and is in readiness for service in the southwestern section of the city, and the system awaits the fitting up of the Patrol Station and Police Station contemplated to be arranged in a portion of the Armory Building.

The Van Service also awaits transfer: the lease of quarters now held having expired.

I respectfully suggest that the subject of adapting the Armory Building be referred to the Joint Committees on Water and Police for consideration and report.

Yours respectfully,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor of Philadelphia.

APPENDIX No. 235.

DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia, September 1, 1886.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—Under the provisions of the ordinance approved November 6, 1862, Section 5, page 376, it is the duty of the City Controller to report to Councils the discovery of all default or delinquency on the part of all departments, bureaux and officers of the city, who shall collect, receive or disburse the public moneys, or who are charged with the management or custody thereof; and the power is therein given to the City Controller to require from any or all of them an account in writing of any or all moneys or property of the city in their hands or under their control.

It has become my duty to report to you under the foregoing directions certain facts respecting the accounts of moneys of the city received by Honorable Wm. B. Smith as Mayor, during the current year. In his estimate of receipts of moneys from all sources for the current year, the Mayor notified this department in writing in July, 1885, that such receipts would probably amount to the sum of $8,000. In the month of July last, in the course of the preparation of the annual statement of this department, which is required by the Act of June 11, 1879, to be presented to Councils on September 1, it appeared that the total amount of money paid by the Mayor to the City Treasurer since January 1, 1886, was $2.59. I then requested the Mayor to make an immediate payment to the City Treasurer of all moneys, if any, collected by him during the current year.

This request not being complied with, it was repeated four times, and at each time a promise of early compliance was made by the Mayor.

The Mayor, on August 20, made a payment to the City Treasurer of six hundred and twenty-five dollars. On August 23 the Mayor sent to me a letter saying that he had referred to the City Solicitor the subject of the payment to the City Treasurer of other moneys derived from license fees. I therefore formally required, in writing, the Mayor to pay over all moneys received by him for or in the name of the city during the year 1886, and to furnish this department a detailed statement of all such moneys, giving the dates of payment and the names of persons paying such funds. On the same day the Mayor paid to the City Treasurer twenty-three hundred dollars, and on August 24, he paid $6,881.15. The Mayor having failed to make to this department the return, which I had required, I repeated on August 26, my previous demand and named an hour, at which the returns should be furnished.

On August 27 the Mayor furnished this department with a return of moneys collected by him during the year, stating the total amount so collected to be $9,911.03. He also paid on the same day the further sum of $112.38 to the City Treasurer, making his total payments at that date exceed by ten dollars the amount stated in his return. This apparent excess covered a payment by Henry Stutz, Jr., of ten dollars, for a coal oil license, not accounted for in the return.

On the following day I detailed Edwin A. Pue, Chief Auditor, and Silas Smith, auditor of this department, to visit the office of the Mayor and thoroughly audit the accounts of funds embraced in his return.

The Auditors commenced their examination on that day by comparing the books presented to them with the items of the return. These books appeared not to be books of original entry, but bore the marks of recent preparation. The partial report of their audit not showing the place of deposit of the moneys during the various periods between the times of receipt and the disbursement, I requested the Mayor on August 30, to name a time at which the Auditors could examine his deposit and check books of the bank in which the moneys of the city under his charge had been deposited.

On August the 31, the Mayor replied, declining to designate any time when these books would be presented for the purpose requested. I then referred to the City Solicitor the question of the duty of the Mayor to submit these books at the audit. The City Solicitor confirmed the view which I had already taken, and I instructed Messrs. Pue and Smith to visit the Mayor at his office to-day in order that they could continue their audit. They presented my written demand to the Mayor for the production of these books, together with a copy of the City Solicitor's opinion on the right to make such demand.

The Mayor stated that he declined to accede to this demand at present, under the advice of his counsel; he also declined, for the same reason, to answer certain questions respecting the alleged receipt of $100 for a license fee which had not been included in his return. Subsequently, I received a letter from the Mayor reiterating his refusal to produce these books.

I have the honor to submit herewith copies of all correspondence referred to in this report, and a copy of the Mayor's return.

The return shows that the moneys received by the Mayor for the City were not paid to the City Treasurer on the days of their receipt by the Mayor's department, as required by Ordinance, approved December 23, 1872, Section 1, page 623.

An analysis of the Mayor's receipt shows that these moneys were received by him and paid over to the City Treasurer in the following months :

January.....	$5,660
February.....	812 50	$2 50
March.....	609 76
April.....	501 38
May.....	361 25
June.....	500
July.....	120
August.....	1356 14	9,918 53
Total.....	$9,921 03	$9,921 03

This does not include the sum of $150 paid on August 31, for which no return has been presented to this department.

In view of the facts which I have presented above it is my duty under the ordinance of November 6, 1862, to report to you that the Hon. William B. Smith, Mayor of the City, has neglected to make payments to the City Treasurer of the moneys received by him for the City, on the days of the receipt thereof by him, in accordance with the literal requirement of the Ordinance of December 23, 1872, and that he has refused to render to this department full information necessary for the proper audit of his accounts, and respecting the custody and disposition of these moneys from the time they came under his control until the payment of the same to the City Treasurer.

Yours respectfully,

ROBERT P. DECHERT,

City Controller.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

ROBERT P. DECHERT, Esq.,

City Controller.

DEAR SIR:—I enclose you herewith copies of letters which I have forwarded this date to the City Treasurer and City Solicitor, relative to license fees from pawnbrokers, etc.

Shall advise you of answer received from City Solicitor upon receipt thereof.

Very truly,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor of Philadelphia.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, August 23, 1886.

FRANK F. BELL, Esq.,

City Treasurer.

DEAR SIR:—Herewith I send you check for the sum of $2,300 in payment of all moneys received by me for the issue of pawnbrokers, theatrical, and gunpowder licenses up to this date.

A large number of the applicants for pawnbroker's licenses have failed to comply in such legal form as to permit a consideration of their applications, and I have therefore addressed a letter (a copy of which is herewith inclosed) to the City Solicitor, and shall await his answer before further action.

Very truly,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, August 23, 1886.

CHARLES F. WARWICK, Esq.,

City Solicitor.

DEAR SIR:—I have paid into the City Treasury all moneys received by me for the issue of pawnbrokers, theatrical, and gunpowder licenses, as required by the ordinances of the city.

A large number of the applications for pawnbroker's licenses have not been accompanied by the security bond and fire insurance policy which are directed by the ordinance to be part of the conditions made requisite before the issue of such licenses, although they all have been officially notified to present the same.

Under the circumstances I have hesitated to make a return of the moneys, received upon such incomplete applications, to the City Treasury, as I am unable, under the laws and ordinances of the city, to grant the licenses asked for. I have, therefore, withheld payment of the amount so received into the City Treasury, and will be pleased to have you, as the city's law officer, advise me in view of my responsibilities and desire to properly fulfill my duty, what disposition I should make of the money pending the further delay which may occur before the conditions demanded by the city ordinances are complied with.

An early answer will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor.

OFFICE OF CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia, August 23, 1886.

HON. WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—My official attention has been called to the fact that during the current year you have received certain license fees from pawnbrokers and others, which have not been paid over to the City Treasurer as required by existing laws.

As the pawnbrokers and others are required to pay certain license fees each year, which are of course payable early in the year, which amount you have estimated for this year to be $8,000, and as I have been informed to-day by the City Treasurer, that the amount received by him from your department in this account during this year is $2,927.50, I assumed that there are other city funds still in your hands.

The Ordinance approved December 23, 1872, Section 1, page 623, requires all municipal offices and departments receiving money on behalf of the City of Philadelphia to pay the same to the City Treasurer on the day of its receipt by such officer or department.

In your letter to the City Solicitor (enclosed in your letter to me of this morning) you state that you still hold funds received by you for such fees, which confirms the view I have expressed. I therefore request that you will, without further delay, make payment to the City Treasurer of all moneys in your hands collected by you, for or in the name of the City of Philadelphia.

The fact that the pawnbrokers have not complied with other provisions of the law is not, in my judgment, a sufficient reason for your withholding from the lawful custodian of the public funds, moneys collected in the name of the city.

I request also, that you will, without delay, furnish this department with a detailed statement of all moneys received by your department during the year 1886, in the name of the City of Philadelphia, from all sources—whether from pawnbrokers, theatrical, gunpowder, and coal oil licenses, or for any other purpose—in each instance giving the dates of payment, and the names of persons paying such funds. This return I request under the authority given to the Controller under the Ordinance approved November 6, 1862, Section 5, page 376.

Yours respectfully,

ROBERT P. DECHERT,

City Controller.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, August 24, 1886.

FRANK F. BELL, ESQ.,

City Treasurer.

DEAR SIR:—In accordance with the enclosed opinion of the City Solicitor, received this date in reply to my official inquiry upon the subject,

I herewith remit the sum of fifty-three hundred dollars, in payment of all moneys paid into my hands by the parties applying for and not yet granted licenses to carry on the business of pawnbrokers.

I remit the further sum of six hundred and seventy dollars paid in for coal oil licenses, which I consider to be also covered by the same opinion of the City Solicitor. A portion of these moneys were paid to me for licenses, which the City Solicitor has decided may not be required to be issued, and the question whether such moneys should be returned to the parties paying them I now leave to be decided by the City's law officer.

I herewith further enclose you a list of the names and residences of the parties by whom the moneys herewith remitted have been paid, that you may credit each of the parties so paying, and thereby be enabled to fill up the receipt at the foot of the licenses, as the same may be hereafter granted and forwarded to you by me on completion.

These remittances cover all moneys paid this office during the present year to date for any and all purposes.

Very truly,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor.

OFFICE OF THE CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia, August 26, 1886.

HON. WM. B. SMITH,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—On the 23d inst. I addressed to you a letter containing, among other things, a request “that you will, without delay, furnish this department with a detailed statement of all moneys received by your department during the year 1886 in the name of the City of Philadelphia, from all sources, whether for pawnbrokers, theatrical, gunpowder, and coal oil licenses, or for any other purpose, in each instance giving the dates of payment and the names of persons paying such funds.”

The return requested has not yet been furnished, but I have received this morning a message from you that it will be furnished to-morrow. I request that you will send it to me not later than 12 o'clock noon to-morrow, and on Saturday next, the 28th inst., I will be prepared to audit the account at this office, at 11 o'clock, A. M., when I request you to be present with all books, vouchers, papers, and accounts relating to the receipt and payment of the funds embraced in your return.

Yours respectfully,

ROBERT P. DECHERT,

City Controller.

V.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, August 27, 1886.

ROBERT P. DECHERT, Esq.,

City Controller.

DEAR SIR:—Under date of August 23, 1886, I directed a letter of inquiry to the City Solicitor, asking his opinion, as the law officer of the city, as to what disposition I should make of certain moneys paid to me for pawnbrokers' licenses, the preliminaries for the granting of which not having been fulfilled. Under the same date I notified you of my official inquiry to the City Solicitor. The following day I received an official reply of the City Solicitor, advising me to pay the said moneys into the City Treasury, which I promptly did on the same day.

On the same day I received an official reply from you, in which, without waiting for the opinion of the City Solicitor, the request for which I had notified you, you also requested the payment of said moneys. You also demanded from me a detailed statement of all moneys received during the year 1886, in each instance giving the date of payment and the names of persons paying such funds. I herewith enclose you the same for your consideration and audit, together with a copy of a communication this day sent to the City Treasurer, accounting for certain omissions in my original return.

When I entered upon the duties of the office of Mayor of the City of Philadelphia, I found a routine of business prevailing in the office which has since been followed, and which, under the opinion of the City Solicitor above referred to, I now have reason to believe to have been an improper one. I agree with the City Solicitor, that moneys for licenses should in no instance be paid to the Mayor, as the Act prescribes that the same should be paid directly to the City Treasurer. Indeed, the City Treasurer, in all instances, receipts directly to the applicant for license, though it has heretofore been the practice of the Mayor to act as the agent of the applicant (not of the city) in transmitting the money to the City Treasurer. I have therefore directed my subordinates to hereafter receive no moneys from any one for licenses.

I think it is not inadvisable to make, at this time and to this extent, this communication upon the questions immediately under consideration between us. At a subsequent time I may beg your attention to some matters having pertinent relation to the general subject, in which the public and yourself may find equal interest, and my own course as complained of have high precedent, if not absolute justification.

Very truly,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor of Philadelphia.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, August 27, 1886.

HON. WILLIAM B. SMITH,
Mayor of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—Under your instructions to me to report to you all moneys received by me for licenses, I reported on the 24th inst. that there has been thirty-one wholesale and thirty-six retail coal oil licenses paid, making sixty-seven in all, amounting to six hundred and seventy dollars.

Having been since instructed by you to prepare a detailed statement of such receipts, I have discovered that in my original report there were several items omitted. These omissions occurred by reason of the hurried preparation of the statement, and by neglect occasioned by such haste to examine the accounts as thoroughly as it should have been done.

I regret the unfortunate circumstance, and desire personally to assume the entire fault and responsibility, as your instructions to prepare a complete statement in this matter were clear and positive.

The following are omitted items, viz.:

Wholesale Dealers.

March 22, Logue, Emily & Co., Greenwich Point,	$10 00
March 22, J. G. Palmer, 2205 North Broad street,	10 00

Retail Dealers.

March 12, C. Tilden, Turner street,	$10 00
March 12, Saml. Steward, 1214 N. Eighteenth street,	10 00

March 22, S. W. Grey, 1600 Spruce street,	10 00

W. F. Linderman, 1402 Frankford avenue,	10 00
March 26, Isaac Loney, 3815 Spring Garden street,	10 00

Total, $110 00

Truly yours,

JOHN L. LINTON,

(Enclosure).

Secretary.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, August 27, 1886.

FRANK F. BELL, ESQ.,

City Treasurer.

DEAR SIR:—On August 24th, in my communication to you, I stated that my remittances of that date “covered all moneys paid into this office during the present year.” I had instructed my secretary to make careful reports to me to that effect. In this preparation of the detailed statement to the City Controller it has been discovered that certain sums received by my secretary were inadvertently omitted from his return, and the omission is explained by him in a letter of this date, which I forward to you. I had no knowledge of such payments. I herewith forward you one hundred and ten dollars ($110), the amount so omitted.

Yours truly,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,

(Enclosure.)

Mayor of Philadelphia.

CONTROLLER'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, August 27, 1886.

HON. WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—The return from your department of moneys received for license fees, etc., which was requested by letter dated the 23d inst. has been received. The audit of this account will be made by the auditors of this department at your office (instead of this office as heretofore stated), and Messrs. Pue and Diamond will call upon you for this purpose at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning, the time heretofore indicated.

Yours respectfully,

ROBERT P. DECHERT,

City Controller.

VII.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, August 28, 1886.

ROBERT P. DECHERT, Esq.,

City Controller.

DEAR SIR:—I have this morning received your note dated 27th inst., informing me of the fact that the audit of the account heretofore presented by me, will be made at this office instead of at yours, as previously announced by you.

The statement which, out of courteous respect to you in your official capacity, I had the honor to communicate to you, was not made under a concession of your right to insist upon having the same, but in order that the public, for obvious personal and official reasons, should be fully advised as to the matters embraced in your inquiry.

If the audit presently to be instituted had taken the usual course, I should have no word to say in connection with it, but allowed it to proceed as it had done upon previous occasions. But in view of recent occurrences, without referring now either to details or motives, I feel it incumbent upon me as the Chief Executive of this City, to suggest to you the want of legal authority and regularity in your actions, first, in demanding of me an account, and secondly, in proposing an audit respecting any of the matters contained therein. My own impressions, strengthened from careful reflection, are adverse to such authority and regularity; but I am not unwilling, indeed, am anxious, under all the circumstances of the case, that the audit shall go on as you have desired, in order especially that the citizens of Philadelphia may know that not a single cent of their moneys, from whatever source coming into this office, has remained a moment without proper appropriation and disposition, after I was officially advised as to the course I should adopt respecting it.

This is not now either questioning or admitting the correctness or soundness of the official advice under which any recent steps have been taken.

I am respectfully yours,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor.

OFFICE OF THE CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia, August 30, 1886.

HON. WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—The auditors of this department have reported to me that on the examination of your accounts on Saturday last, the deposit and check book of the bank in which the moneys of the city under your charge were deposited were not presented for their examination. It is customary that all books relating to public accounts be presented at the audit. As your return shows the receipt by you of moneys of the city throughout the first seven months of the year which were not paid to the City Treasurer until the present month, it would aid in the settlement of the account if you will present these books to them. I, therefore, request you to designate a time to-morrow when these books will be presented to Messrs. Pue and Smith for the purpose indicated, who will call upon you at whatever hour you may select.

Yours respectfully,

ROBERT P. DECHERT,

City Controller.

IX.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, August 31, 1886.

ROBERT P. DECHERT, ESQ.,

City Controller.

DEAR SIR:—Your note, dated the 30th inst., requesting that I would designate a time to-day when the deposit and check books of the bank in which certain moneys were deposited should be presented to Messrs. Pue and Smith for their examination was received by me this morning.

In your note this statement occurs: "It is customary that all books relating to public accounts be presented at the audit." Concerning this I have to reply as follows: "Whatever was required by the gentlemen sent by you to make this audit for the purpose of assisting them in that business was, without hesitation, placed before them and nothing withheld from their inspection which by the slightest intimation from them was important to the full completion of their labors. It is not customary, I venture, differing from your intended assertion, to say, to present at the audit, the check and deposit books in which accounts in bank are noted and entered as connected with this office. Indeed, it has never upon any previous similar occasion been done or requested during my connection with the office. I did not, therefore, volunteer the submission of those books to your subordinates who conducted the audit; nor, upon due consideration, should I have felt called upon to submit them to you, if you had yourself thought the matter of sufficient gravity to be personally present. Any and all books and papers which showed the receipt of all moneys and my payment over of the same into the City Treasurer were exhibited to your auditors : they made no complaints or suggestions, and asked for nothing further, but left me with the declaration that my accounts disclosed the fact that I had overpaid to the city the sum of ten dollars, and that otherwise everything was correct. I presume that either they had comprehensive instructions from you as to the course they should pursue in their examination, or were so familiar with their duties as to know just what they should do and what should be shown them. They acted in accordance with their own judgment, and were assisted in all respects as they desired to be. The books you have referred to will neither exhibit the receipt of the money in question nor the payment of them by me to the proper officer when officially notified upon my own inquiry that it was my duty so to pay them. Any other purpose, manifest or hidden, I do not intend to gratify, and with this view, therefore, and referring to my communication to you, dated the 27th, as to your lawful authority and regularity in the premises, I must decline to designate any time when the books you have mentioned will be presented to Messrs. Pue and Smith for the purpose indicated in your note.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor of Philadelphia.

OFFICE OF THE CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia, August 30, 1886.

CHARLES F. WARWICK,

City Solicitor.

DEAR SIR:—On the 26th instant I informed the Mayor of the City of Philadelphia that his itemized account of moneys received by him for and in the name of the city would be audited on Saturday last, the 28th instant, and in writing I requested him to present at the audit “all books, vouchers, papers, and accounts relating to the receipt and payment of the funds embraced in his return.”

At the audit the deposit and check books of the bank in which these moneys were deposited before being paid into the City Treasury, were not presented by the mayor.

On the 30th instant I addressed the Mayor in writing, requesting him to present these books to the auditor of this department, and to designate a time when these books could be examined by them. In a letter to-day received from the Mayor, he refuses to submit these books for the examination of the auditors.

I desire to have your opinion, as to whether, under these circumstances, it is the duty of the Mayor to submit at the audit the deposit and check books of the bank account in which these public moneys were deposited before being paid over to the City Treasury.

Yours, respectfully,

ROBERT P. DECHERT,

City Controller.

XI.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

Philadelphia, August 31, 1886.

COL. ROBERT P. DECHERT,

City Controller.

DEAR SIR:—I am in receipt of your letter of even date, in which you state that on the 26th instant you called upon the Mayor to produce all books, vouchers, papers, and accounts relating to the receipt and payment of the funds embraced in his return. That at the audit the deposit and check books were not presented, and that on the 30th instant you requested him to present these books for examination, and that in a letter to-day received from the Mayor he refuses to submit these books for the inspection of the auditors.

You desire my opinion “whether under these circumstances it is the duty of the Mayor to submit at the audit the deposit and check books of the bank account in which these public moneys were deposited before being paid over to the City Treasurer.” As Controller you have power under the ordinance of November 6, 1862, to supervise and control the fiscal concerns and to audit the accounts of all departments, bureaus, and officers of the city who shall collect, receive, or disburse public moneys, and without going into details at this time, I am clearly of opinion that it is the duty of the Mayor to submit for your inspection the deposit and check books called for by you in the audit of the said account.

Very truly,

CHAS. F. WARWICK,

City Solicitor.

CONTROLLER'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, September 1, 1886.

HON. WM. B. SMITH,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—I herewith enclose a copy of the opinion of the City Solicitor upon the subject of the production to the auditors of this department of the deposit and check books of the bank in which the funds of the city, received by you during this year, were deposited before the same were paid over to the City Treasurer. By this opinion it appears to be your duty to produce these books as heretofore requested, and I therefore renew my demands for their production for the purposes of the audit, and I request that you will submit them to Messrs. Pue and Smith, the auditors of this department detailed for that duty, who will present this letter to you.

Yours respectfully,

ROBERT P. DECIERT,

City Controller.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, September 1, 1886.

ROBT. P. DECHERT, ESQ.,

City Controller.

DEAR SIR:—Within the past hour there has been handed to me, by Messrs. Pue and Smith, your communication dated to-day, enclosing “a copy of the opinion of the City Solicitor upon the subject of the production to the auditors of this department of the deposit and check books of the bank in which the funds of the city received by you during this year were deposited, before the same was paid over to the City Treasurer.”

In the said opinion the City Solicitor thus expresses the conclusion to which he had come: “I am clearly of opinion that it is the duty of the Mayor to submit for your inspection the deposit and check books called for by you in the audit of said account.” I have given respectful consideration to this communication, and without discussing here the terms of that portion of your note above quoted, or stating the reason for my disagreement with the City Solicitor as to the probable ground upon which he is “clearly of the opinion” as furnished to you, I see no occasion to modify or recall in the least degree the language used by me in my communications to you respectively dated August 27 and 31 ult., or to consent to submit to your inspection, or that of your subordinates, the check and deposit books, which you have demanded to have exhibited to them. I beg to remind you here that, upon this point, it is you, and not I, who have asked the City Solicitor for an opinion as to my duty in the case.

My own request to that official was replied to by him, and the course which he advised at once pursued by me.

I take leave to differ from you greatly, as to the nature and extent of your authority and duty concerning this office and myself, as the chief executive of the city; and while, in courteous deference to your request, I presented an account to you for examination, and permitted such of my official books and papers as were asked for to be inspected by your auditors to the fullest extent, I have no further submissions to make, nor anything beyond what my clearly expressed duty in such regard shall require at my hands.

I have nothing to conceal, but neither have I anything to disclose upon demands which are unwarranted, and in a proceeding, as I am advised, wholly without the intent or sanction of law.

The tribunal before which my clear and full explanation shall be made must be such a one as shall not seek to vest itself with unauthorized power on the one hand, or have about it the atmosphere of personal and undignified threats and attempts at intimidation on the other.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM B. SMITH,

Mayor of Philadelphia.

APPENDIX No. 244.

Philadelphia, Sept. 6, 1886.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—Your Joint Committees on Finance and Surveys, to whom was referred the message of his Honor, the Mayor, returning without his approval an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to approve the contract and surety of R. A. Malone & Sons for the construction of an iron bridge over the river Schuylkill at Market street," respectfully report that a meeting of the Committee was held this day at 12 M., at which there appeared Samuel L. Smedley, Chief Engineer and Surveyor, Messrs. Widener and Elkins, of the Philadelphia Traction Company, and a Committee of the Municipal Reform Association of the City, by invitation of your Committee. Mr. Smedley, Chief Engineer and Surveyor, presented a statement (which is hereto appended) sustaining the action taken by Councils. Mr. Widener made a statement to the Committee that their Company would be responsible for the entire expense of constructing the "slot" for the cable, and after patiently hearing a statement from the Committee on Municipal Reform Association sustaining the Mayor in his reasons for returning the bill without his approval, your Committee are of the opinion that the bill should be passed, notwithstanding the objection of the Mayor, and so recommend.

Finance Committee.

DEPARTMENT OF SURVEYS.

Philadelphia, September 6, 1886.

JOHN BARDSLEY, ESQ.,

Chairman Joint Committee on Finance and Surveys.

DEAR SIR:—His Honor, the Mayor, has vetoed the ordinance approving the contract and sureties for Market Street Bridge, for the reason “that the specifications under which the present contract is sought to be approved permit changes by the Chief Engineer and Surveyor in the design or specifications, or both, of any part of the work, without limit in the amount, and without the approval and consent of Councils to the proposed changes and alterations,” as required by the ordinance of July 5, 1877.

I respectfully submit that his Honor is mistaken in his premises, and that the specifications confer no such power on the Chief Engineer and Surveyor, and that they are in accordance with and subject to the provisions of said ordinance.

Said ordinance requires that when contracts are altered in any material matter, the consent of Councils must be obtained, leaving immaterial alterations to the head of the department having charge. And in order to do this, subject to the ordinance, without giving the contractor the opportunity to make exorbitant claims, the specifications (Section 9) provides “that if the Chief Engineer and Surveyor or the City consider it necessary to change the design or specifications, the contractor shall conform to such change, and no consequential loss of profit on work not executed shall be estimated; also, that the value of changes shall be estimated by the City officer, and accepted by the contractor as final, thus debarring him from any claims or suits for extraordinary compensation.

The necessity for such a clause to protect the corporation from claims of contractors for material changes or minor variations, which may be construed by them so as to make plausible claims for material changes, has led to the insertion of a provision of this character in specifications for important public works generally.

The specifications of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and of many other corporations, give their engineers the right to make any alterations, additions, or omissions they may find necessary without vitiating the contract, the value of such alterations or omissions to be decided by the engineer, who shall make equitable allowance for the same.

Section 9 does not establish the relations between the city and her engineer. It does not say that if the Chief Engineer and Surveyor consider it necessary to make changes, etc., he shall have power to do so, but the section deals with the relations between the city and contractor.

The powers and duties of the heads of the departments are prescribed by laws and ordinances passed by Councils, and among these is the ordinance of July 5, 1877, which remains in full operation as far as relates to this contract.

The ordinance of May 26, 1886, authorized the Chief Engineer and Surveyor to enter into a contract for the construction of the whole or parts of an iron deck bridge over the Schuylkill River at Market street.

Under this authority a contract has been entered into only for the iron superstructure and the building of stone abutments and piers above low water line for the sum of $271,000.

This contract and the ordinance approving it (and no other) is the one under consideration.

It is limited explicitly to that sum, and no more can be expended under it by any means or power of the chief engineer and surveyor or any other agent of the city.

The Mayor charges that the specifications do not conform to the following clause of the ordinance of May 26, 1886: "In case after the removal of the old masonry, any portions of the foundations are found defective the chief engineer and surveyor is authorized to enter into agreement or contract for changes in the plans and specifications, as the necessity of the case may demand, subject to the approval of the committee of surveys," etc., etc. This clause does not relate to the contract under consideration, but to the rebuilding of old piers, a different matter; entirely distinct therefrom. The authority therein conferred has not yet been exercised, and may not be at all. It will not be, until after the old piers are torn down, and then if it is found necessary to rebuild or change these foundations below low water mark, the present contractor is required by this Section 9 of specifications to suspend his work, if necessary, until such changes are completed, and to afford every facility for making the changes, without any claim for compensation for delay. If it shall then be found necessary to rebuild or add to the foundations below low water line, another contract separate and independent of the one under consideration, must be entered into, in accordance with the general laws governing such cases, and the special ordinance of May 26, 1886, passed by Councils and approved by the Mayor.

In closing this statement I reassert that Section 9 of Specifications is subject to and consistent with the ordinance of July 5, 1877, requiring material changes to be approved by Councils ; that it is necessarily included to protect the city against claims of contractors.

That this contract is for a specific amount of work limited to a specific sum which cannot be exceeded ; and the question whether any additional contracts for additional work on the foundations below low water is yet undetermined. Such contingencies being provided for by the ordinances and specifications.

I would also call your attention to the fact that these contracts and specifications cover many other important safeguards, which the long experience of the department has discovered, as being requisite for the proper prosecution of the work ; that they have been drawn with the greatest care, and are complete to an extraordinary degree, providing for every known contingency. A true judgment of their scope cannot be formed from any single paragraph ; they must be considered as a whole, and it will be seen that what might seem to be omissions, are fully covered in other places. The final clause declares that nothing contained in this agreement or the specifications shall be construed to preclude the city from contesting estimates or certificates of the Chief Engineer or Surveyor, or any other officer, but the city may take every legal defence relative to the work, notwithstanding the certificate of any officer.

Every step taken by me in this urgent work has been done promptly in accordance with law and the directions of Councils, as passed from time to time. The full exertions of the limited force of the department has been cordially given to the speedy preparation of the necessary calculations and plans, the work has been advertised, the contract awarded and approved in the least limit of time practicable, in order that the work might be proceeded with this summer, as delays would carry it over so late in the fall that it would have to be suspended, and a season suitable for work would be lost.

All of my work has been in time to insure the proper prosecution of the contract within the year.

I trust that I have demonstrated that the specifications were properly drawn, and that the responsibility for delay, which the Mayor regrets, does not rest upon me.

Respectfully submitted,

SAMUEL L. SMEDLEY,

Chief Engineer and Surveyor.

GENTLEMEN :—There are stored in the office of this department certain balances—weights and measures belonging to the City or County of Philadelphia—which by recent enactment have become, for the present, useless in the performance of the duties of said department, and not having a safe place for their care or protection, and feeling that at some future time the same may again be required for use in some department of the city, we therefore respectfully request your Honorable body to cause such a resolution or ordinance to be passed as will authorize us, as County Commissioners, to deliver the same to the Commissioner of Markets and City Property, as the custodian of such property, so that the same may have the care and protection that, for reason of want of accommodation and security, this department does not possess.

To the Board of Prison Inspectors
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN :—Having made you a proposal, of even date herewith, for the furnishing by us of the drawings and specifications for the New County Prison, proposed to be constructed near the House of Correction, if that proposal is accepted by you, and you desire us to take charge of the construction of the work, we would do so on the following basis :

A competent inspector or clerk of the work, nominated by us and approved by you, to be stationed at the prison site, to act under our direction. We do the necessary instrumental work of giving lines, levels, etc., to inspect the work as it progresses : see that it is done in accordance with the plans and specifications ; prepare and certify estimates for contractors, and generally perform the duties of supervising engineers and architects.

You to pay the salary of the resident inspector or clerk of the works, also to pay us for our services at the rate of three thousand dollars per year. Settlements to be made monthly.

Should the work be suspended by reason of a failure on the part of the city to provide funds, or for other cause, we not to receive compensation for the time of such suspension.

This arrangement for our taking charge of the construction of the work, to be terminated at any time by either party on thirty days notice.

The manner in which the work of constructing the prison will be carried on, and the time that will be occupied, are so uncertain that no basis of a fixed sum or commission for superintendence can be figured on, therefore we suggest the above as the best way under the circumstances.

Respectfully yours,

APPENDIX No. 258.

Philadelphia, September 13, 1886.

To the President and Members of Common Council
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Committee appointed under the resolution of September 2, 1886, to investigate accusations against Hon. William B. Smith, Mayor of Philadelphia, and the management of the department under him, respectfully reports that, on September 4, 1886, a meeting was called in the Select Council Chamber, in pursuance of said resolution, for the purpose of taking testimony in relation to said charges. A number of witnesses had been subpoenaed, and were about to be called, when Mr. Bardsley, a member of the Committee, arose and invited the gentlemen who represented his Honor, the Mayor to make any statements that they might deem proper, looking to the refutation of any of the charges. Mr. Ruddiman, of Counsel for his Honor the Mayor, then handed to the Committee a letter, dated September 3, 1886, addressed to Charles Roberts, Esq., Chairman, and Members of the Committee of Investigation, which letter is printed in full, and will be found on page 7 of the testimony taken in the case, and presented with this report. The first witnesses who were called were the pawnbrokers, whose names had been furnished to the Committee. They testified that they had each paid to Major John L. Linton, the Secretary of the Mayor, $100 for licenses, for 1885 and 1886, as required under the ordinance of February 16, 1856, Sect. 1. A number of these witnesses testified that they had paid these fees by check.

A. J. McGarry produced five checks. The first, No. 461, dated January 3, 1885, on the Penn National Bank, to the order of the City Treasurer, or bearer, for $100, signed A. J. McGarry. Endorsed "William B. Smith, Treasurer. Deposit to the credit of William B. Smith, Treasurer." Mr. McGarry stated that when the check was originally presented to the said Secretary of the Mayor the words "Or bearer," in print, were stricken out. In answer to the question—"Were the words stricken out by you?" he replied, "Yes, sir." He was then asked, "But the words, 'Or bearer,' in writing, were inserted; was that by you?" He answered, "That is not my handwriting," and further stated that it was not done with his knowledge or consent. See pages of the printed testimony 27 to 30.

Check No. 92, of date January 3, 1885, to the order of the City Treasurer, or bearer, $100, signed Harvey & McGarry, and endorsed "William B. Smith, deposit to the credit of William B. Smith, Treasurer." The testimony in relation to this was the same as that in regard to the previous check. Three other checks were handed to the witness, dated January 6, 1886. Two of them, Nos. 8 and 9, were on the National Bank of the Northern Liberties, payable to William B. Smith, or order, $100, signed A. J. McGarry, and endorsed "Deposit to the credit of William B. Smith, Treasurer." The other check, No. 121, dated January 6, 1886, on the Penn National Bank, payable to William B. Smith, Treasurer, or order, $100, signed Harvey & McGarry. Endorsed "Deposit to the credit of William B. Smith, Treasurer." The witness testified that the checks were handed by him to the Secretary of the Mayor, and that originally they were drawn to the order of the City Treasurer, and that without his knowledge, or any authority from him, the name "William B. Smith" was written in the body of the checks after they left his hands. (See Testimony pages 29, et seq.)

It was further shown in testimony that in many instances in 1886, even when the conditions of the ordinance were complied with, the licenses were not issued for many months after the payment of the fees, and the testimony showed that in 1885 in many cases licenses were not issued until December of that year. It was further in evidence that upon the fifth day of January, 1886, a fee of $100 for a license was paid by Daniel Rosenthal, a pawnbroker, who at that time was in business at 1127 Poplar street, and in the return made by the Mayor to the City Controller and City Treasurer no such amount for such a purpose is accounted for.

In another case brought to the attention of the Committee, Thomas B. Lovett, residing at No. 224 Lombard street, testified that he was in Major Linton's office the morning that Mrs. Etta Hymens came to pay her license; that he saw her go to Major Linton, and saw her bondsman sign the bond, and saw her take out her pocketbook and take money out of it, but that then his attention was directed to another part of the room, and he supposed, of course, that she paid the money. He admitted that he did not see her give the money to Major Linton, but saw her take the money out of her portemonnaie. After that he walked down the street with her as far as Walnut street, and she made a remark that satisfied him that she had paid the money. This fee is not accounted for by the Mayor in his return to the Controller. Briefly, then, the testimony above referred to shows that money for license fees as received at the Mayor's office in the years 1885 and 1886; that the fees were sometimes paid by checks, and that several of the checks were altered by some one in the office of the Mayor, without authority and not in the presence of the makers; that those checks, so altered, were endorsed by the Mayor, "William B. Smith, Treasurer," to correspond with the alterations made in the bodies of the checks, and by the said "William B. Smith, Mayor," deposited to his own account with the Fidelity Insurance, Trust, and Safe Deposit Company; that in many instances the conditions required by the ordinance of the city were complied with upon the part of the pawnbrokers, and that the licenses of the said pawnbrokers were not issued in 1885 until the close of the year, and in 1886 not until months after the fees were paid, and by reason of this negligence the said pawnbrokers were allowed unlawfully to conduct their business in this city in violation of the provisions of the act of February 24, 1859.

It was further shown that even after the payments of the fees, in many instances, the conditions required by law were not exacted by the Mayor.

The Committee then called witnesses in reference to the charges against the Mayor to his use of these moneys for his own purposes.

Robert M. Scott, the general bookkeeper of the Fidelity Insurance, Trust, and Safe Deposit Company, testified that he had charge of the account of William B. Smith, "Treasurer," that the account had been in that shape since December 8, 1880. The said William B. Smith also had an account as "Trustee," to the credit of which no deposit was made since the 23d of June, 1882. That as to the account of William B. Smith, "Treasurer," it appeared that on February 4, 1885, the balance to his credit was $2,929.19, and that the first item to his credit, under date of February 4th, is interest to the amount of $9.27 on the average balance at 2 per cent. per annum for the previous six months. On the 5th of August another balance is struck showing $6,714.10 to his credit, and on the same day is passed to his credit $14.76 interest. The witness was then asked as to the condition of this account on the 1st of July of this year. The answer was that the Mayor had a balance to his credit of $2,354.06, and on the 15th of July it was $1,135.73; on the 24th of July it was $754.47, and on the 28th of July, $5.27; on the 30th of July it was $27.67, and on August 2d $52.54, and then it was overdrawn $97.56, and on the 5th of August it was overdrawn $47.66, and this overdraft was not made good until the 11th of the same month, and then a deposit of $500 was made.

On the 20th of August he had $1,014.44 to his credit; on the 21st of August he had $414.44; on the 24th of August he had $6,709.44, and on the 28th of August he had $629.44, and that was his balance on the morning of the giving of the testimony by the witness. On July 6, two checks went to protest for the want of sufficient funds, checks Nos. 106 and 108 for the respective sums of $123.17 and $211.80. When the account was overdrawn the bookkeeper notified the Mayor of the over draft, sending word to his office twice, first a written notice and then a verbal message. A number of checks were then produced running from July 20 to August 27, but the first check in the year 1886 to the order of Frank F. Bell, City Treasurer, for the moneys received by the Mayor for license fees, etc., was for $400, dated August 20. The second check was dated August 23, and was for $2,300, the third was dated August 24, and was for $5,300, the fourth dated the same date for $670, and the fifth dated August 27, for $128.

It was admitted by his Honor, William B. Smith, that all the moneys that came into his hands by cash and by check for the issuance of pawnbrokers' licenses were deposited by him in his account with the Fidelity Insurance, Trust and Safe Deposit Company, and it was proved by the testimony of Robert M. Scott, the general bookkeeper of that institution, that these moneys were drawn upon by the Mayor for his personal use, and that he had no other account in that bank in which these moneys were deposited. That during this time the balance was reduced to the sum of $5.27, and at times overdrawn. Robert P. Dechert, City Controller, submitted to the Committee an analysis of the Mayor's returns, made on the 27th of August, compared with the payments made by the Mayor into the City Treasury. At the close of January, 1886, he should have paid into the City Treasury $5,660, and at that time he had paid nothing. At the close of February he had collected $6,470. At the close of June, his collections had increased to $8,432.39. In other words, at the end of June he was short $8,432.39. On the 2d of July the shortage had increased to $8,834.39, and on the 13th of August the amount was $9,008.53. On the 17th of August $9,108.53, and by reason of a payment to the city on the 20th of August it had decreased to $8,483.53. The Controller further testified that in May or June, he called Mayor Smith's attention to the fact that no money, save $2.50, had been paid into the City Treasury, and that unless there was a payment made, the department would receive no credit in the estimates that were being prepared for Councils upon which the appropriations were to be based for the year 1887.

The reply of the Mayor was, that the matter would receive his attention promptly, but nothing was done. The above testimony having been taken, Mr. Roberts, the Chairman, stated publicly that it was the sense of the Committee that the Mayor should be heard personally, or by counsel, and also any witnesses that the Mayor might designate should be heard before the Committee, and that it would give the Chair, as representing the Committee, great pleasure to issue orders for any subpoenas desired by the Mayor or his counsel. After this announcement by the Chairman of the Committee, the first witness to appear was Howard March, Chief Clerk to the Mayor, who testified that it was his duty to collect the fines of policemen and the penalties for redemption of dogs. That in 1884 he collected for redemption of dogs $1,140. That of that amount he turned into the City Treasury $810, and retained in his possession $330. In 1885 he collected from this same source $1,784, of which amount he paid into the City Treasury $1,084, retaining in his possession $700. In 1886 he collected $1,148, all of which money he returned to the City Treasurer, still retaining the balance of City's moneys he had collected during 1884 and 1885, amounting to $1,030, which, after giving his testimony, the Committee directed him to pay to the City Treasurer.

The Committee also examined as witnesses the Chief of Police and Mr. Kelly, the Chief of Detectives, a number of lieutenants, and some special officers, among the latter of whom may be named Alexander Gray, and the Committee respectfully refer your Honorable Body to the testimony to be found on pages 202 to 279.

The developments made in the testimony produced before the Committee resulted in bringing about the resignation of Alexander Gray, who upon the stand admitted that he had "sneaked from his duties," and that he would do so again if he had the opportunity. At the time this testimony was given, a warrant was in the hands of the Controller for his pay for the month of August.

John L. Linton was called as a witness, and testified that he was Secretary to the Mayor; that he had altered the checks of A. J. McGarry and Harvey & McGarry, which had been received by him in payment of fees for pawnbroker's licenses. That the alterations in the checks had been made so as to enable him to deposit the checks to the credit of the Mayor, in the name of "William B. Smith, Treasurer." He further testified that no parts of the receipts for coal oil, theatrical or gunpowder licenses ever left his custody from the date of receipt to the date of their payment into the City Treasury. Yet it was subsequently shown, on the testimony of reliable witnesses, and admitted by Mr. Linton himself, that he had used a check for the payment of his rent—a check received from the Penn Oil Manufacturing Company in payment of their coal oil license for 1886. It was also in evidence that the Secretary to the Mayor kept no books of account, no books showing the receipts of the Mayor's office or of payments to the City Treasurer, nor were there any books in which were kept the records of the details connected with the issuance of licenses to pawnbrokers. Without commenting further upon the methods of Mr. Linton, the Committee respectfully refers to his printed testimony.

Hon. William B. Smith then came upon the stand. The Chairman of the Committee asked him to make any statement that he desired to make bearing upon the matter under investigation. He testified that in 1884 he instructed Major Linton, who was his secretary, to examine into the matter of the pawnbrokers' licenses, and to compel the payment of the fees, and a compliance with the conditions required by law. Early in 1885, the money received as license fees was placed upon deposit in the Fidelity Insurance, Trust and Safe Deposit Company to the account of William B. Smith, Treasurer, which was a general account, "never truly official and even personal." He further admitted that the said money which was so deposited had been drawn against and used by him for his own purposes, and that at the time he felt completely satisfied that the City of Philadelphia could not be put to any loss, as he always had resources far more than the amount so deposited, subject at any time to any demand from the city. He testified that when this demand was made upon him he could have paid the City Treasurer, in direct cash, out of the safe in his office?

In regard to the money for the redemption of dogs, he stated that he assigned Mr. March as the agent to receive all moneys from that source. It will be seen by a reference to the testimony of the Mayor, to be found in the printed testimony from pages 337 to 394, that the defence set up by the Mayor, as to the use of this money, was in order to remove any suspicion of an intention on his part to misuse it or misappropriate it, and that he felt himself able at all times to meet every demand from the City for these moneys, as he had a greater sum in his safe, or in his pocket, than was due the City, but that he did not so pay it while these charges were being made, simply because he did not care to be driven. In corroboration of these statements Mr. Fell, a clerk in the office of the Mayor, testified that there was a private safe in the office in which the Mayor kept large sums of money. Mr. Fell also stated that upon one occasion, the date he could not remember, he thought he counted the sum of $15,000, and that the money so deposited was in packages; and, in further corroboration, Isaac H. Shields, Esq., counsel of the Mayor, said at one time, seeing a large package of money in the safe, although he did not know the amount, he told the Mayor that it was not prudent to keep money in that way.

The Committee, after a careful examination into and a conscientious consideration of all the facts, says with great reluctance that it is most difficult to believe the statement of the Mayor that he had at all times in his safe sums of money ranging from $5,000 to $15,000, which money was kept as security for the deposits in bank, that he might at all times be ready to meet any demands from the City for the return of the license fees. This late defence is not consistent with the early statements of the Mayor in relation to the matter. It must be remembered that the Controller in May or June called upon him personally for an annual estimate, and for a return into the City Treasury of all the moneys collected by his department; that the balance to his credit in the Fidelity Company was upon one occasion reduced to the sum of $5.27, at other times overdrawn, and in July his checks had gone to protest. That serious charges and accusations were affecting his standing as a man, his reputation as a public officer, and the fair fame of the City.

The Committee does not think it probable that any man, under such circumstances, if proof had been so close at hand would have failed to remove from his name the reproach and shame that was cast upon it. And even when the Controller was making an audit of the account at the office of the Mayor, and calling for the production of the deposit and check books, not a single reference was made to the money in the safe, the very production of which, with proof that it had always been kept to secure payment in case a speedy demand should be made, would have relieved him of the serious charge of the embezzlement of public funds. And the Committee is further constrained to find that the testimony of Mr. Fell does not corroborate the testimony of the Mayor upon the point that he had money at all times in the safe in sums sufficient to secure the payment of the moneys received for the city on deposit, to the credit of the Mayor in the Fidelity Insurance Trust and Safe Deposit Company, inasmuch as Mr. Fell did not know the amounts of money that were in the safe, and kept no account of them, although in a measure he was the custodian and the only person, except the Mayor, who knew the combination to the safe. He did testify that upon one occasion he thought he handled and counted $15,000, but could not tell when it was. He kept no memorandum of the amount, and could not state the amounts that were in that safe at different times: in fact admitted that he refrained from ascertaining the amounts; nor could he tell what sum of money was taken out of the safe the day the deposit was made. The testimony, also, of Isaac H. Shields, Esq., is not in corroboration of the statement made by the Mayor. The fact that he, at one time, called the Mayor's attention to the keeping of a large sum of money in the safe, in no wise proves that that amount of money was kept there at other times, and all times, for the purpose of meeting just such a demand as was afterwards made by the Controller, and after some delay complied with by the Mayor.

It is respectfully submitted by the Committee that the most careful consideration has been given to the testimony received. That under the resolution its simple duty was to find the truth or falsity of any of the charges and accusations made against the Honorable William B. Smith, the Mayor of the City of Philadelphia. That without prejudice, bias or feeling, it has been the simple purpose of the Committee to call every witness who could in any way throw light upon the charges made. But, under the resolution, the Committee is of the opinion that there is no middle course for it to adopt.

A reference to the resolution will show what is required of the Committee, it reads as follows: "And the said Committee are hereby instructed and directed to make report to Common Council as to the truth or falsity of such accusations, and if the truth of such accusations be established by the facts, and proofs exhibited before said Committee, that their report be accompanied by articles of impeachment," in other words, that the report be in favor of impeachment.

It will be seen that the resolution directs if all or any of the said accusations be established that the Committee must report in favor of impeachment, and in order to find for impeachment the Committee is of opinion that it is not necessary that the Mayor should be guilty of a crime, but that mal-administration, misuse of public funds, negligence and carelessness in the discharge of the duties of the office, by reason of which negligence and carelessness opportunities were given for the commission of crimes, are such malfeasance and mal-administration as will subject the Executive of the Department to impeachment.

The Committee submits the following as its findings upon the charges preferred, and the testimony submitted: That his Honor, William B. Smith, Mayor of the City of Philadelphia, is guilty of misdemeanor and mal-administration in office:

1. By receiving and retaining money paid for license fees, which it was not made his duty by any law or ordinance to receive, and then appropriating said money to his own use.

2. By retaining moneys received during the years 1885 and 1886, and neglecting to pay the same into the City Treasury in accordance with the ordinance of the city, approved the twenty-third day of December, 1872.

3. By failing to enforce the ordinance of January 19, 1856, regulating the trade or business of pawnbrokers, thereby permitting the said trade, or business, to be unlawfully carried on in 1885, until the latter end of the year, and in 1886, until August, and in some cases up to the present time, without the licenses required by said ordinance being first obtained.

4. By failing to exercise proper supervision over the affairs of his office, whereby moneys belonging to the city were collected during the years 1884 and 1885, and retained in the alleged possession of his Chief Clerk, who made no return to the City Treasurer or to the City Controller of moneys so received, and so retained, until forced to do so from fear of discovery in the investigation of these charges by this Committee.

5. In that he was negligent in the discharge of his duties as a sworn public official, whereby it was possible for John L. Linton, the Mayor's private Secretary, to alter checks, drawn to the order of the City Treasurer that the Mayor might deposit them in his private bank account, and that it was possible for the said John L. Linton to receive and retain public moneys and appropriate the same to his own use, which moneys should have been paid into the City Treasury, and in that the said John L. Linton was not required to keep any books of account nor to make return of those moneys which he had been delegated by the Mayor to collect.

6. By reason of his negligence in the supervision of the Police Department, special officers were appointed whose dereliction of duty had to be admitted, and whose services were so seldom rendered that they could not account before the Committee for the work for which they received pay from the city.

The Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, By the Common Council of the City of Philadelphia. That the Honorable William B. Smith, Mayor of Philadelphia, be, and hereby is, impeached for misdemeanor and mal-administration in office.

APPENDIX No. 259.

Philadelphia, September 13, 1886.

To the President and Members of the Common Council.

GENTLEMEN:—As a member of the Committee to investigate the accusations against Hon. William B. Smith, Mayor of Philadelphia, I present the following report:

The resolution under which this Committee was appointed cites—

Firstly—That whereas, Honorable William B. Smith, Mayor of Philadelphia, has been openly and publicly accused of high crimes and misdemeanors in office, by the embezzlement and misuse of public moneys which have come into his hands.

Secondly—And with unlawfully changing and so altering checks drawn to the order of the City Treasurer, in payment of fees due the City of Philadelphia, as to be enabled to deposit such checks in a private banking institution to his account, and unlawfully retain, embezzle, and misuse the moneys realized therefrom.

Thirdly—And of other acts and deeds inconsistent with the high office of Mayor and the proper management of the department under him, the same being in violation of the laws and ordinances governing and regulating the affairs of the City of Philadelphia.

The Committee, as a body, find that the charge of embezzlement and that of altering of checks by the Mayor has not been sustained. Under the broad specification of "Misdemeanor in office" I am compelled to disagree with some of my colleagues as to their judgment. My reasons for this dissent are: That in an opinion given by the City Solicitor to his Honor, the Mayor, on the 23d of August, in reply to a letter from the Mayor, he believed that the pawnbrokers' license money, lawfully, should have been paid direct into the City Treasury by them, and the City Treasurer's receipt then to be presented to the Mayor as evidence that the license money was paid: whereupon the Mayor should see that the requirements of the law were complied with and the necessary license issued.

Further, That the Mayor, in his testimony, swore that he did not regard this money paid into his hands as the city's money, and that by the advice of his counsel, the money received from the pawnbrokers was not the city's money, and that he was not acting as the agent of the city, but as the agent of the pawnbrokers, in receiving and retaining these pawnbrokers' license fees, which evidence was corroborated by the counsel who gave this advice (Isaac H. Shields, Esq.), and further testimony of the Mayor, which was corroborated and uncontradicted; that he had at all times sufficient ready money in the safe in his office to meet any and all just demands upon him, and that when this question of paying this money, which was in his hands, into the City Treasury, became a matter of public comment, he sought the advice of the City Solicitor (his private counsel being away from the city at the time) and upon the same day, upon receiving the advice from the City Solicitor that the moneys should be paid into the City Treasury, that they were so paid; thus showing no disposition to retain them, or to do aught than what he considered his proper duty to do under the circumstances. That while the evidence submitted to them shows that the methods of the office could be greatly improved, that the Chief Executive has been careless in the supervision of his subordinates, who first received these moneys, and that these same subordinates have been guilty of irregularities and reprehensible acts, that I do not consider that it has been substantiated that the Mayor has been guilty of the serious charge which has been made against him, and therefore I consider it a duty which I owe to my own conscience, arising from convictions which have been born from the evidence adduced before the Committee, that nothing has appeared before the Committee which calls for or which would, in any degree, justify them in presenting articles of impeachment; therefore,

Resolved, That this report be adopted, and the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. R. CLARIDGE, JR.,

Of Committee on Investigation.

APPENDIX No. 260.

RESOLUTION

Requesting a reply from the City Solicitor, to Resolution of November 5, 1885, regarding the powers of the Board of Public Education.

WHEREAS, The Board of Public Education proposes to ask for $2,000,000, or about one-fourth of the whole available revenue for the maintenance of the city government:

AND WHEREAS, In view of the fact that large numbers of children are educated at private expense, or imperfectly accommodated and taught by the Board, it becomes a grave financial question how far Councils are justified in voting this huge sum for the education of so small a proportion of the children of the city: therefore

Resolved, By the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, That the City Solicitor be respectfully reminded that he has made no response to the Resolution of these bodies, passed November 5, 1885, and that he be requested to do so as early as practicable, in order that members may profit by his opinion before the appropriation bills are considered.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys and Regulations, to whom was referred the accompanying Ordinance to prevent the merging of the balance of the appropriation for the construction of a sewer at Fifth and Annisbury streets, and to authorize the disposition of the same," beg leave to report that a contract was entered into on the 28th of July, 1885, for the building of a section of a sewer across Wingohocking Creek, at Fifth street, for which an appropriation of $9,000 was made on the 31st of December, 1884.

On the 26th of April, 1886, the final estimate under the contract was made, amounting to $7,686, leaving $1,314 unappropriated.

There is a deep valley where the creek crosses, and the confirmed grade of the street requires eight feet of filling over the new sewer.

GENTLEMEN:—The Committee on Finance respectfully report that they have considered a communication from Wm. B. LAW DEPARTMENT.

Philadelphia, July 22, 1886.

JOHN ECKSTEIN, Esq.,

Clerk of Committee on Finance.

DEAR SIR:—I received some weeks ago from the Committee on Finance a communication enclosing a letter from William

B. Irvine, Esq., late City Treasurer, relating to commissions allowed him by the State, upon which you request my opinion.

It appears from this communication that William B. Irvine, Esq., and his predecessors, D. P. Southworth, Esq., and Joseph J. Martin, Esq., were paid by the State certain commissions for the collection and accounting for State money.

The question upon which your committee desires my opinion is, whether or not these commissions so collected should be turned into the County Treasury. I am also in receipt of resolutions relating to the same subject from the Committee on Law.

I have given the matter most careful consideration, and have concluded that in view of the importance of the questions involved, the interests of the city will best be served by a presentation of the facts to the court at as early a date as possible; in other words, that suit be instituted to determine the question.

Joseph L. Caven, Esq., now absent in Europe, is counsel for Mr. Irvine. As soon as he returns I have no doubt we shall be able to agree upon a case stated, which will raise the whole question for judicial determination. If such a disposition of the matter meets with your approval, I shall present the subject to court upon receiving a resolution to that effect.

Yours, very truly,

CHARLES F. WARWICK,
City Solicitor.

RESOLUTION

Of instruction to the City Solicitor relative to certain commissions.

Resolved, by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, That the City Solicitor be, and he is, hereby instructed to agree upon a case stated, or otherwise to recover certain commissions for the City of Philadelphia received by the several City Treasurers, which were paid by the State for the collection and accounting for State money, and which should have been paid into the City Treasury in accordance with the Act of March 31, 1876, relating to fees received by county officers.
